

BRITISH IGNORE TURK MOVE

Comment by Chester H. Rowell

MAIN STREET—CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—In visiting Middle-Western towns, I have had an opportunity to study "Main Street." It has become the fashion to decry Main Street, and Main Street towns and people. It pleases our vanity, to assume ourselves unprovincial and cosmopolitan, and quite above the Middle Western Main Street bourgeois.

Quite true! We may be as superior to them as we like. There are people in these Middle Western towns quite as limited, quite as devoid of ideas, imagination and experience as the most supercilious realistic novelist could picture them. So are there in New York, or San Francisco—or Paris. There are towns inexpressibly dreary to look upon, in which no passer-by, by train or airplane, could be induced to stop over, if he could help it. But there are children playing in the streets of those towns who will dream all their lives of the scenes gilded with the glamor of youthful association. They do not find the drab dreariness barren of beauty.

Neither, always, do their parents find it barren of life and culture. For the Middle West is no longer young. East of the Mississippi it has three and even four generations behind it. Further West the second generation is now growing up.

These generations have accumulated not only property, but traditions. In larger proportions than New Yorkers—or San Franciscans—they send their sons to Harvard and their daughters to Vassar. Often enough, it is the second or third generation to do so. They know books and music and travel. They have seen the world and still find the home town good.

For in it they know also life. They know their neighbors' parents and grandparents. And they know them in wider circles in the small city than any one can know them in the metropolis. Their boosters' club is no crude thing in Chicago. Their golf links are as good as any in New York—and no ten miles of barbarous subways to get to them.

Drop from your hypothetical airplane on one of these Mid-Western cities. Superficially, there is nothing to tempt you to stay. The town is "finished." It has grown in its forty years about as much as a corresponding California town might grow in six months. Its fine old houses have much dignity, but little beauty. It is snow-bound in winter, mud-bound in spring and heat-plagued in summer. The products of the country round about are corn and hogs, and the industries of the town are prosaic. Soft coal smoke has smeared everything except the leaves and flowers of spring and a summer of gloomy gray. The sky is dull, the earth is black and the landscape is flatness.

Evidently no place for a fastidious cosmopolitan like yourself. But you stop, nevertheless, and let us suppose that some fortune opens the doors to you, so that you see the place from the inside, as its own people know it.

Most of its people you find are "ordinary." So are most people everywhere. And they are of a less picturesque ordinariness than the swarming denizens, of your favorite metropolitan slum.

They know more, they wear better clothes, they have more to eat, they are better housed, they are cleaner, and they behave more decently. Therefore, they are a less colorful foil to your brilliant self.

So forget them. They are not impressed by you, and are quite satisfied if you are not impressed by them. Seek rather those whom the rest of the community regards as its best.

And then forget your pose of superiority. For here you find people just like those you like to pretend were your associates in the metropolis—a attractive, cultivated people, probably less provincial than yourself, at home in the world of men and of thought, leading an interesting and liberal life, and quite unconscious of deserving any one's pity.

Most life is barren enough, on its surface. Most life is rich enough when you plough into it. And this Middle West of Gopher Prairie, but also of Keokuk and Des Moines, this richest, muddest, ugliest part of America, set in its thousand miles of corn stubble, between the East and the West—is it just like everywhere else, once you get inside of it.

SELF-TIED—Let us call a conference," say the Americans, "but only on the condition that there shall be no mention of the question which we do not want discussed." "Agreed!" said France once, and might say again. "But only on the same condition, that there shall be no discussion of the questions which we do not want discussed."

But unless the questions are discussed which France does not wish discussed, all conference is futile. These are the very questions on which the whole situation turns. And unless we are willing to say that everything is discussable, including the things on which we should prefer our own way, without discussion, we cannot deny to France the right to make the same reservation on which we insist ourselves. So, "our hands are tied." But it is ourselves who have tied them.

PELT DEAL FRAUD IS CLAIMED

BROKER GIVES SELF UP TO AUTHORITIES

Leaves Here Week Ago for Utah Capital to Surrender

R. H. Siddoway, a bookkeeper and real estate broker in this city for the past two years, today was in the state's prison at Salt Lake City, where he yesterday surrendered himself and began serving an indeterminate sentence, imposed following conviction on a charge of misappropriating state funds.

He left Santa Ana for Salt Lake a week ago yesterday, it was stated here.

According to a special telegram to The Register from Salt Lake City, Siddoway formerly was state fish and game commissioner of Utah. He served in that position four years, retiring January 1, 1921. He later was charged with embezzling $1400 in connection with the sale by his department of beaver pelts.

The Salt Lake Telegram said that an audit of his accounts disclosed a shortage in excess of $4000, but only $1400 was included in seven charges that were preferred by state authorities. He was arrested and released on bond shortly after coming to Santa Ana, it became known here.

His first trial resulted in disagreement of the jury, but the second, in April, 1922, ended in conviction. An appeal was unsuccessful. Siddoway signified his willingness to return to Utah and serve his sentence. He kept his promise, arriving at the penitentiary yesterday before the commitment had been received by the warden.

The family of Siddoway did not accompany him to Salt Lake. It is understood the family will remain here indefinitely. Siddoway was recognized here as a keen business man and successful real estate salesman. Friends acquainted with his situation today expressed the very deepest regret.

SAVANNAH PUTS ON GAY GARB FOR TROOPS

(By United Press Leased Wire) SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 6.—Savannah was in holiday attire for the celebration in honor of the arrival of the last of the American army of occupation. Flags floated from all buildings and ships in the harbor were gaily bedecked.

A cold wind was blowing and the temperature hovered around the lowest of the season but the weather bureau promised warmer breezes tomorrow.

The transport St. Mihiel, bearing approximately 1200 officers and men of the Eighth Infantry regiment, together with three German mothers-in-law, fifty-three German wives and twenty-one German-American kiddies, is expected to cross the Tybee bar at the entrance of the harbor, about 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. The ship will dock about 9 o'clock.

Following the debarkation of the troops a mammoth parade of the returned soldiers and army units from this section will be held.

Wives and children of the troops will be housed in a number of bungalows built at Fort Screven, near here. Under a special dispensation all married soldiers will be discharged immediately on landing if they make application.

A half holiday has been proclaimed by Mayor Seabrook and banded, barbecues, dances and other activities have been arranged for the two-day celebration.

Irate Austrian Mob Drives German Hero from Country

MUNICH, Feb. 6.—General Ludendorff, military hero of the central powers in the great war, was driven from Austria today by workers.

The former quartermaster general is returning to his villa in Munich valley after a hostile demonstration at Klagenfurt.

Ludendorff had been staying at a hotel in the Austrian city. A group of workers gathered outside shouting: "Bloodhound! Germany's grave digger!"

The general attempted to proceed to Vienna but the workmen halted his train and discovered the erstwhile commander hiding in a lavatory. They ordered him to return to Germany at once.

FAVORS NEW U. S. CANAL AT ISTHMUS

Weeks Reveals Plans for New Waterway to be Paid For By Present System.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—This government is planning to build another canal in the vicinity of the Panama canal with the profit derived from the latter, it was said at the White House today.

This, however, is an ultimate object of the government and probably will not be consummated for some time.

Two probable locations have been suggested:

The abandoned site of the proposed canal through Nicaragua and a tidewater canal at Panama.

The present canal is operating now only up to a forty per cent capacity. It cleared in profits during January of this year, $500,000, according to a report which Secretary of War Weeks made to the cabinet today, when the whole project was discussed.

AWAIT ARRIVAL OF ALQUIN TO SEIZE CLARA

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 6.—The fate of Clara Phillips, hammer murderer, now in hiding somewhere in the state of Chihuahua, hangs on the delivery of "Little Phil" Alquin, dope ring leader, and alleged slayer of Detective Sergeant John J. Fitzgerald, into the hands of American authorities, it was freely predicted here today.

"Little Phil" is now aboard a Mexican Petroleum company tanker, due to arrive in Galveston some time today.

Galveston police will be advised by wireless, and will meet the vessel with a tug and remove the deported gunman under strong guard.

Soon after "Little Phil" is landed there, the doors of the bastille in Los Angeles will swing open and Herbert and Fernando Uribe, charged with possession of a stolen automobile, will walk out, freed of the charge.

Those on the "inside" here declare that, barring slips in present plans, this will also be the signal for Clara's arrest.

It is expected that Dr. Uribe will inform a representative of District Attorney Thomas L. Woolwine of Clara's whereabouts immediately his boys are freed, and will also act to have her put under arrest by Mexican national police.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Chief of Police Oaks was still here today, awaiting definite word regarding the whereabouts of "Little Phil" Alquin. "Little Phil" is now reported to be aboard the Mexican Petroleum company tanker "Mexicana," which sailed early Monday from Tampico for Galveston.

ATTORNEYS WAGE HOT FIGHT IN TRIAL HERE

Attorneys today were waging a legal battle at the trial of Chester Griffith and Myrtle Mason, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Mrs. Mason's infant child.

According to arguments of Defense Counsel William F. Menton, the state presented nothing which would show what the child had been living together when the couple had been living together as man and wife.

Deputy District Attorney D. G. Wetlin argued otherwise. The court was considering legal authorities at a late hour.

WALLACE WINS HARDING BACKING

GHOST CITY CASE MAN JAILED

Salesman Convicted Here In Alleged Bunko to Be Sentenced

Arrested in Los Angeles, by city detectives, J. K. Wood, convicted "ghost city" land salesman, and fugitive from justice, was today being brought back to Orange county by Deputy Sheriff G. E. McClellan for sentence.

Wood's bond of $1,500 was forfeited last week when he failed to appear for sentence. Pending a decision of the appellate court, to which he had appealed his case, he had been at liberty under bond.

When word of the higher court decision was received here several weeks ago, an effort was made to find Wood, in order that he might be brought back for sentence. When the remittitur was received and filed in court here officers again unsuccessfully sought him.

A warrant was given to Los Angeles authorities, who, after an extended search, found him there. Rumors to the effect that he had left the United States and gone to South America were set at rest thereby.

Wood was arrested and convicted on charges of selling "phantom" lots in the Mojave desert, representing them as valuable oil property.

He will face a sentence of from one to ten years in San Quentin, as a result of the sustained conviction. In addition he may receive other punishment for his failure to appear.

Arrangements were being made here today for the funeral services to be held at 3:30 p. m. tomorrow for Miss Lucille Lancaster, 17, Santa Ana high school student, who died last yesterday following a brief illness during which she contracted lockjaw.

The death of Miss Lancaster, who was the daughter of Mr. Phil Alquin, dope ring leader, and Mrs. R. S. Lancaster, 1426 North Baker street, and who was well known in the city's younger set, came as a shock to her scores of friends.

Miss Lancaster had been ill but a few days with a sore throat and what was believed to have been an attack of tonsillitis. She was taken seriously ill late Sunday and placed under the care of a physician. Lockjaw set in and took her life after a few hours of suffering.

The Rev. F. T. Porter, pastor of the First Christian church, will officiate at the services, which will be held from the Smith and Tutill chapel. Interment will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL DIES OF LOCKJAW

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Information given by a dope peddler to department of justice agents has led to a re-opening of the case of William Desmond Taylor, slain film director, it was learned today.

It was reported unofficially that the dope peddler declared that a movie actor whom Taylor had befriended, fell in love with a film actress, mentioned prominently in connection with the case during the murder investigation, and that as Taylor was also in love with her a quarrel ensued.

The report stated that the movie actor was reported to be a user of drugs, and that following the murder various phases of the "triangle" situation were freely discussed in underworld circles.

Both police and department of justice agents are checking up the man's statements.

SOLOMON WOULD PLAN SCHOOL GIRL STYLES

Washington Legislator Urges Higher Collar and Longer Skirt in Proposed Law.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 6.—The Washington legislature will consider plans and specifications for high school girls' clothing.

A bill drawn by Representative Kennedy specifies high school girls must observe the following minimums in clothing:

Minimum cut of waist below collar bone, two inches.

Maximum distance between floor and hem of skirt, 14 inches.

Sleeves must cover the elbow.

School principals must set maximum prices for dresses to be worn in their schools.

"This is not a reform measure," said Kennedy. "It is designed to help the girls who cannot afford luxuries in dress."

BIG FILM FOLK PLAN WAR ON EXHIBITORS

(By United Press Leased Wire) LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—A million dollar corporation whose purpose will be to obtain a "fair financial" return from pictures produced by independent film stars will probably result from a meeting at the home of Douglas Fairbanks, it was learned today.

Those subscribing to the organization are Douglas Fairbanks, Mary Pickford, Charley Chaplin, Pola Negri, Harold Lloyd, Constance and Norma Talmadge, the Jackie Coogan interests and D. W. Griffith, it was declared by Joseph M. Schenck, who has joined forces with the United Artists.

Schenck declared that in many cities exhibitors have combined, and instead of paying the actual value for rental of a big feature to independent producers, make their own offer at a very much lower figure, under the threat that if the offer is not accepted, the production cannot be shown in that particular city.

To combat this situation, the new organization will bring counter pressure to bear, Schenck said. If an exhibitor makes this threat, say, against a Constance Talmadge picture, he will automatically be unable to get any pictures of the other stars involved, as will the other exhibitors in the combine.

The system will be combatted by newspaper advertising, and if it persists the organization will go into such towns and build theaters out of their capital stock. Sol Lesser, owner of a chain of one hundred theaters in California, in which Schenck is interested, has offered to build a theater in any city where such a situation exists, he told the United Press.

It is reported that one California city in particular, where exhibitors pursue this policy to the point of refusing first runs, will be made the scene of an object lesson and that the combine, immediately after the organization is formed, will erect a theater there. Each of the stars involved will subscribe $10,000 or more to the organization, Schenck said.

URGE CALIFORNIAN FOR CABINET POST

(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Dr. Elwood Mead of California, widely known expert in land reclamation work, has been suggested to President Harding as successor to Secretary of the Interior Fall, it was announced at the White House today.

Dr. Mead, who has had extensive experience in Australia as well as in California, with land settlement projects, especially those concerned with setting up ex-servicemen, is known to be sympathetic with the policies of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

FAVORS PLAN FOR SAVING FORESTS

President Aids Conservationists by Taking Sides In Cabinet Row

(By United Press Leased Wire) WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—President Harding today gave his open support to a policy of strict conservation of America's dwindling forest reserves.

In a letter to Representative Clarke, of New York, the president appealed "for a larger co-operation between the federal government, the state authorities and the private owners of timber land for a national conservation policy to protect and conserve the fast dwindling forest areas of the country."

The president, in his letter, strictly aligned himself with the forces backing Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in his fight to prevent the transfer of the forestry bureau to Secretary Fall's department of the interior.

President Takes Sides.

The strict conservationists have been backing Wallace and those favoring rapid private development of government resources have been backing Fall.

The president endorsed a bill giving the secretary of agriculture broad powers to conserve the timber reserves.

"The federal government has made fine progress in its scheme of forest reserves, the development of methods of forest protection against fire and insect and plant pests, in promoting reforestation and methods of timber conservation and in its research looking toward improved methods of timber utilization," the president said.

FREEHOLDERS PLAN SPECIAL MEETING

Members of the board of freeholders were called into special session at 7:30 o'clock tonight, at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, in a notice issued this afternoon by W. L. Grubb, chairman of the board.

Grubb announced that legal drafting of the charter had been completed, and that it would be presented tonight for final discussion and adoption by the board. Members also will be expected to attach their signature. It is expected that the charter will be submitted to the city council at its next meeting.

'LEGEND' OPERA TO BE PRODUCED HERE

The cantata "Golden Legend," by Sir Arthur Sullivan, author of "The Mikado" and other operas, will be the vehicle in which the Orange County Choral union will make its next public appearance in this city, it became known today, following a meeting of the directors held last night in the study of Ellis Rhodes.

The first rehearsal will be held at junior high school tomorrow, according to A. H. T. Taylor, president of the organization. The cantata will be given April 2, 3, and 4 at the Temple theater.

'30' BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Japanese immigration to the United States is prohibited under a provision of the bill tentatively adopted by the house immigration committee. The provision, which was designed to carry out the recent decision of the supreme court, provides that "an immigrant not eligible to citizenship shall not be admitted to the United States."

POLICEMAN'S TOTS ARE BITTEN BY DOG

Snapping dogs are no respectors of persons.

Police Officer W. B. Harwood was today looking for the dog that bit his small son and daughter last night.

The animal's jaws were wet, it was said, indicating the possible presence of rabid infection. No trace could be found of the dog to determine definitely whether it was suffering from the disease. The children are being treated.

Girl On Ocean Trip Talks Daily With Brother In Chicago

CHERBOURG, Feb. 6.—Miss Florence MacDonald of Chicago arrived here today aboard the Cunard liner Berengaria, having talked with her brother at the Drake hotel, Chicago, each night of the voyage by means of wireless telephony.

A private set, constructed by E. F. MacDonald, of the Chicago Radio Laboratory, connected with the Berengaria's aerials, enabled the girl to perform the unique feat.

"My brother, in Chicago, talked to me every night at 1 o'clock Chicago time," Miss MacDonald told the United Press. "He would tell me the personal news and bid me good night. "I could recognize his voice and hear every word, except part of the time last night."

YOUTH TAKES STEP-SISTER IN MARRIAGE

Bridegroom becomes Son-in-Law of Own Father as Ceremony Tangles Family Tree.

When Elbert O. Fowler, 20, married his step-sister, Jean E. Miles, 18, they put a few gnarls into the family tree.

The bridegroom was the son by an earlier marriage of John Fowler, San Francisco. The bride was the daughter, by a former marriage, of the elder Fowler's wife. They secured a license to wed here today.

By this simple act of matrimony, Fowler became the husband of his step-sister, and vice versa.

The elder Fowler became the father-in-law of his own son, and Mrs. Fowler senior became the mother-in-law of her own daughter.

But that's nothing. Should there be children of the union, they would be nephews and nieces of their own parents.

And if—but what's the use.

LAST SEDGWICK POST CHARTER MAN DIES

Members of Sedgwick Post No. 17, G. A. R., today were mourning the loss by death of the last of the charter members of the organization. Robert Cummings, the last remaining member, died yesterday at his home, 1739 Grover street, Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow at Pierce Brothers' undertaking parlors, 810 South Flower street, Los Angeles.

The death of Ira Chandler in this city a little more than a week ago and that of Mr. Cummings in Los Angeles yesterday removed from the local roster the last two living members of the original group of veterans that secured a charter for the post.

The charter was issued February 24, 1881, with the following listed as charter members:

Hiram K. Axtell, Jacob P. Thompson, William H. Drips, Robert Cummings, Peter H. Eullen, Isaac N. Jefferson, Joseph E. Stack, Ira Chandler, Charles E. French, Joseph Ellis, Monroe E. Halladay, John Q. Hannah, William A. Chittenden, Batchley Wright and Francis M. Smith.

Cummings was a pioneer butcher of this city, at one time a member of the firm of Cummings and Dawson, operating a shop at 213 West Fourth street.

He erected the brick business structure on the southwest corner of Fourth and Birch streets, now occupied by the paint store of W. P. Fuller and Company.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Faulkner, in the early days operated a rooming house at the northwest corner of Fourth and Ross streets, under the name of the Faulkner house.

FRENCH TROOPS SLAY TWO IN RUHR RIOTS

(By United Press Leased Wire) MUNSTER, Feb. 6.—Two Germans were killed by French troops in the newly occupied territory today, according to reports from Wiesbaden.

Outside of these isolated instances, the Ruhr and the Rhine-land were quiet, the French having failed to put into effect their threat to cut traffic on the Berlin-Switzerland main lines north of Baden.

Germany refused to enforce resumption of the international train service on the Paris-Prague and Paris-Orient lines, and France had threatened to prevent rail traffic to Switzerland, but this was not done.

Finance Minister Hermet came to the Ruhr today following return of Chancellor Cuno to Berlin.

German miners in the Saar basin struck yesterday—but for more wages, according to their spokesmen. The mines of the Saar have been under French control since the Versailles treaty awarded them as compensation for damage done in northern France in the war.

NEAR EAST PEACE IN BALANCE

French In Frantic Struggle to Revive Lausanne Parley

FLEET READY FOR DASH TO TURKEY

British May Quit Ruhr and Rush Army to Constantinople

(By United Press Leased Wire) LONDON, Feb. 6.—Great Britain played a waiting game with the Turks today, while France struggled to revive the almost extinct Lausanne conclave.

The British cabinet met, reviewed plans for possible defensive warfare in the Near East, and let the Kemalists understand that they now could come to London if they had anything further to say regarding the treaty Ismet Pasha rejected Sunday.

Meanwhile the foreign office bombarded the Quai D'Orsay with notes requesting explanation of Poincare's note to Angora which the British feel strengthened Turkey's hand to a point where defiance of the allies became an apparent possibility.

The entente is far from secure, with the British now ready to end it, withdraw from the Ruhr and hold out alone in the Near East by seizing Constantinople and rushing a strong fleet into Turkish waters. Britain counts on assistance of strong Greek troops in Thrace.

The French are beginning to feel they have more to lose than Great Britain if the Lausanne parley ends, and were stressing Ismet Pasha's avowed willingness to give way on judicial guarantees and even sign the treaty as a last resort rather than break openly with Britain. The Turks depart Saturday but will follow the example of the French and British and leave secretaries behind in case Poincare is successful in reviving the parley.

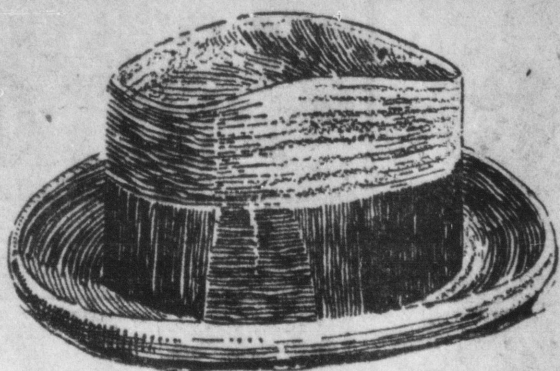

The Russians, whose presence at Lausanne has been overlooked for a day or two, asked today "What about the Straits?" Tchitcherin said he expected to hear from the allies on this subject immediately.

TURKS BACK DOWN IN DEFTY TO BRITISH.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—Turkey has capitulated on the chief point under dispute at the Lausanne conference, and threat of immediate war in the Near East is somewhat further averted.

TAKE NEW STEP IN LAUNCHING BOOST CLUB

Everett A. White, as chairman of the publicity committee of the Santa Ana Realty board, today was preparing letters to be mailed tomorrow to heads of various organizations in the city asking appointment of one member from each to a general committee to assume management and responsibility for organizing a Greater Santa Ana club. Appointment of representatives is asked at once so that a meeting of the general committee may be held within two weeks. White pointed out that it was the intention to make the organization of the club a community effort and for that reason clubs and societies were being invited to appoint representatives.

To Extend Invitations.
The purpose of the club will be to organize a campaign here for financing a series of page advertisements in Los Angeles papers inviting tourists in the metropolis to investigate Santa Ana as a home city.

Presidents or secretaries of the following clubs and societies will receive the invitation:

LETTERS AS TO U. S. BUILDING ANSWERED

Strong indication that the stand of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce in the matter of obtaining a federal post office building for this city has been fruitless, was disclosed by letters received today from Congressmen Phil D. Swing, and Senator Hiram W. Johnson, by J. C. Metzgar, secretary of the chamber.

"I am easily persuaded that Santa Ana does need this building," wrote Congressman Swing, "and your letter furnished very helpful statistics for me to present to the committee in support of my bill."

"I acknowledge receipt of your letter," wrote Senator Johnson, "concerning an appropriation for a federal building at Santa Ana. I shall be pleased to take this matter up with the treasury department and see what can be done."

Johnson continued:
"However, because of the short time remaining of the present session of congress it will be impossible to secure a report from the supervising architect's office and the post office department on this subject and the passage of the necessary legislation. Moreover, the director of the budget in pursuance of the administration policy of economy has rejected practically all new building projects except where extreme emergency is shown."

"The situation may be somewhat improved before the convening of the 68th congress in December and in the meantime an investigation may be conducted and report made by the treasury department on the need for a new federal building at Santa Ana."

BASEMENT BILLIARD HALL O. K. URGED

Declaring that the man, and not the location, should be the chief factor in consideration of an application for a license for the operation of a billiard parlor, Councilman J. W. Tubbs, at the meeting of the city council last night, recommended the granting of an application for a license for a billiard parlor and bowling alley in the basement of the new building being erected on North Broadway, near Third street, by the Santa Ana Development company.

The application was referred to Tubbs at the meeting of the council one week previous. Tubbs said that he had made an investigation of the character of the applicant and his conduct of a similar business in another city and had received reports from bankers and business men indicating that he was a man of high standing.

An ordinance concerning operation of such enterprises was given its first reading and referred back to the city attorney. In the ordinance it is proposed to eliminate features of a former ordinance which permit billiard parlors in basements.

An application from Edward Cochems for a license to operate a billiard parlor on the southwest corner of West Fourth and Artesia streets was granted.

NEAR EAST PEACE AGAIN IN BALANCE

had made preparations to follow, Ismet Pasha, Turkish spokesman, apparently realized he had made a mistake.

The Turk sent word to Paris by M. Bompard, French delegate, as follows:

"I am ready to accept judicial safeguards. I understand that the allies agree to defer economic clauses of the treaty for further discussion."

Ismet Pasha intimated he now feels the next move should come from the allies. Until France and Britain agree as to what shall be done, continuance or abandonment of the Lausanne parley is in the balance.

The Turkish delegate wishes to return to Ankara to confer with his government. He is anxious to have the conference resumed.

Premier Poincare sent a note to Great Britain and to Italy, suggesting the allies should resume negotiations with the Turks. Italy replied favorably; the British reply was delayed.

PLAN TO ESTABLISH GARAGE IS RAPID

Property owners in the vicinity of 821 West Fifth street are decidedly opposed to the location of a repair garage at that location, it became known today following the meeting of the city council last night, at which a protest signed by fifteen owners was filed. An application had been filed by Frye brothers.

Residents in the 1300 block on East Third street are also opposed to the proposed location of a Mexican church in that neighborhood, a protest against the edifice being established there having been filed with the council. The protest recited that a Mexican school is now located there and the signers declared that they did not favor establishment of an institution that would further increase the number of foreigners in that vicinity.

ARRANGE TO LOCATE DOG POUND HERE ON CITY'S SEWER FARM

With the city council last night giving him full authority to arrange for the prompt disposition of dead dogs and the establishment of a dog pound on the city sewer farm, George Weibrecht, sanitary inspector, today announced that residents in the vicinity of North Pacific avenue and Hickey street no longer would have complaint to make about dead and live animals being brought to the corner by Poundmaster F. W. Fausett.

Roland Thompson, attorney, resident of the neighborhood, reported to the council last night for the second time, that dogs kept at the corner by the poundmaster continued to disturb the night peace and quiet of that vicinity.

Scott Willson, a member of the police force, was detailed to visit the pound last night while the council was in session. He reported that three live and three dead dogs were at the Fausett barn on the corner at that time.

Weibrecht announced today that in future dead dogs would be buried on city property on West Edinger street.

FIRE HYDRANTS TEST ORDERED BY COUNCIL

Fire hydrants in Santa Ana will be tested hereafter every ninety days, with the fire department held directly responsible for their condition, it became known today, following an executive session of the city council last night.

The situation developing at the fire at the apartment house of F. O. Linger, 925 French street, Sunday afternoon, was discussed at length, and it was decided that in future it should be the duty of the department to make tests and keep the equipment in condition.

According to reports made at the executive session, investigations disclosed that the hydrant at the corner of Tenth and Spurgeon streets had been jammed, possibly by being struck by an automobile or truck. The condition of the hydrant was said to have been one of the causes that delayed the department in getting a stream of water on the burning building. This delay was said to have resulted in the residence being damaged beyond repair. Persons present at the conflagration declared that had the department been able to get a stream immediately following its arrival, the damage to the dwelling would not have exceeded $200.

OPEN TRIAL OF YOUTH ON GIRL'S CHARGE

After a special venire had been secured, a jury was chosen to try William Wilson, Orange youth, in Superior Judge R. Y. Williams' court on serious charges involving a young girl and said to have grown out of an incident which occurred at a dance at Olive.

Much of the morning was taken up in securing a jury. Wilson was represented by Attorneys Ames and McFadden of Anaheim, while Deputy District Attorney C. N. Mozely represented the people.

CACTUS PLUNGE GIRL CASE IS CONTINUED

K. S. Barnett, Los Angeles, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Miss Glenys Smart, half sister of Madalynne Oberchain, who was rescued by barge hands after she had become entangled in the cactus near Newport Beach, several weeks ago, will not come before Justice J. B. Cox until March 13 at 2 p. m.

At the request of Barnett's attorney, W. J. Desmond, Long Beach, the preliminary hearing was continued from next Friday to that date.

Barnett, according to Miss Smart, induced her to go to Newport with him, gave her several alcoholic drinks, and then left her. When she was rescued, she was partially nude, and bore hundred of scratches from the cactus needles.

PAIR IN ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE BOUND OVER

John Campbell and Robert Gregory, two of five men who escaped from Deputy Sheriff G. E. McClellan, as he was bringing them from Fullerton to the county jail, and who were later recaptured, today were awaiting arraignment in superior court here on robbery charges, following a preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice Brown, Anaheim, who held them to answer.

The two men, and three others,
throttled McClellan, and, after taking his revolver away from him, escaped. According to information produced at the hearing yesterday, the pair held up Mrs. Alice Massey, Anaheim, as she was driving her automobile past, and ordered her to get out. Only the fact that they could not start the machine was responsible for the fact that they did not escape according to witnesses.

Conviction of highway robbery

year to life.

NEWS BRIEFS

The Men's club is to meet Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the parish hall of the Church of the Messiah.

Robert E. Reid, of the Buick agency, and Mrs. Reid left here today for Del Monte, where Reid will enter the golf tournament arranged by the Automobile Dealers' association of California. Qualification tournament is Friday of this week, and Monday come the finals
with eight Southern California
auto golfers playing eight from the northern end of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Reid will attend the automobile shop in San Francisco February 17-24, and will visit Mrs. Reid's mother in San Francisco.

C. S. Kelley and George S. Briggs
where they will enjoy a week's vacation.

Mrs. C. H. McCausland has opened a stenographic office at 520

That Mrs. Bertha May was once more at her home, 1416 Bush street,
and was recovering from the effects of an operation for the removal of her tonsils which she underwent at the hospital, was the news welcomed today by the many friends of Mrs. May and her daughter, Miss Margaret May, of the public library.

W. R. Ralston, assistant state leader of boys of the College of Agriculture, was expected here today to consult with W. M. Cory, assistant farm advisor, as to the procedure in organizing boys'
bean selection and poultry clubs in Orange county.

An illustrated lecture on "The History of Mormonism" will be presented at G. A. R. hall Friday at 7:30 p. m., according to an announcement made today. An explanation of the origin of Mormonism, its beginnings and growth
will be made, and a brief outline of the fundamental tenets of the religion will be given. Colored slides will be used and a musical program presented.

Long pruning results in greater vigor, yield and girth of trees, H. E.
Wahlberg, Orange county farm advisor, said today was the consensus
at the meeting of the Synopsia club
at the Riverside experiment station yesterday. Dr. H. S. Reed led the discussion of this subject. Others on the program were Professor Fred Bioletti, W. P. Tufts, H. E.
Wahlberg, F. F. Halma, and L. D.
Bachelor.

University of California alumni here today were interested in the announcement that a great university banquet would be held at the Ambassador hotel, Los Angeles, February 13, at 7 p. m., when the growth of the Southern Branch of the university will be discussed
and a future policy will be formulated. President David P. Barrows and regents of the state university will be among those present, it was stated.

COUNCIL ORDERS BOND ELECTION ORDINANCE

WALLER QUILTS
POST AS CITY
ELECTRICIAN

J. F. Waller, city electrician, today was making preparations for severing his connection with the city, following presentation and acceptance of his resignation by the council at its meeting last night.

The resignation becomes effective February 15. No reason for the resignation was given.

The resignation of Frank Stewart as a member of the city motor cycle squad was presented and accepted. O. V. Barnhill, formerly an officer at Fullerton, was appointed in his stead. Stewart has been appointed to the motorcycle county squad.

The Standard Oil company was given permission to locate a station on the northwest corner of Fourth and Garfield streets.

B. R. Ford was awarded a contract for paving Lynwood and Eastside avenues, in the subdivision
adjoining the new John Muir school on East Fourth street, on his bid of 20 cents a square foot
for five-inch pavement.

A bill of the railroad commission, amounting to $13.10, for inspection of fire alarm system, will be investigated, it was decided.

Council members expressed surprise, that such a bill should be filed, voicing the belief that inspection was a duty of the commission and therefore not a just charge against the city.

Resolutions were adopted ordering plans and specifications for paving East Santa Clara avenue
from Bush to Santiago streets;
Bush streets from Washington avenue to Santa Clara avenue, East and West Twentieth streets and overruling protests of Southern Pacific Railway company to paving of Bush street.

Ordinances were read providing for starting new proceedings for paving Artesia street from First to Fifth streets, and a portion of East Third street, establishing grades on a number of streets, and creating new boundaries of the third ward of the city to include territory in the McFadden tract recently annexed to the city.

Salaries of Miss Gertrude Humphrey and Mrs. Russell Johnson, in the office of the water department, were increased from $75 to $90 a month, effective February 1, on recommendation of C. H.
Chapman, water commissioner.

On recommendation of Chapman,
a permit was given to E. B. Parker for establishment of a sash and door factory at the corner of Garfield and Second streets.

Permits Granted.
Permission to hang an electric sign was given the Douglas hat store at 116 East Fourth street, and to Juan Chavez, to operate a popcorn stand at the southwest corner of French and Fourth streets.

John Lacy was appointed a member of the fire department on recommendation of H. H. Dale, fire commissioner.

Request for electric light at Fifteenth and Sycamore streets was granted on recommendation of W.
A. Greenleaf, street commissioner.

The street superintendent was directed to paint stalls on North Broadway, in front of the courthouse grounds, to provide angle parking in that block.

Maps of subdivisions 407 and 396 were approved.

The city clerk was directed to bill Anaheim and Fullerton for their proportion of moneys paid by Santa Ana on outfall sewer work.

To Open Parton Street
North from Fifteenth
To Seventeenth, Plan

Declaring that public necessity and convenience required the opening of Parton street north from Fifteenth to Seventeenth street, the city council last night adopted a resolution authorizing institution of proceedings in condemnation of property needed for opening of the street.

The proceedings will be directed against Louise Crane and the estate of Oscar Gruenewald.

Continuation of the street
is part of a program of subdivision of acreage north of Washington avenue, in the vicinity of North Flower
street.

A. J. Smiley and Wayland
Wood have instituted a subdivision on the corner and with George W. Ford have given a deed for property required in continuing the street from Washington avenue to Fifteenth street.

HOTEL GUEST ACCUSED.

C. R. Crawford failed to pay his hotel bill, according to a complaint issued through the district attorney's office here today. M. J. Cahill, a clerk at the Rossmore hotel, was complainant.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Four directors and two stockholders constituted the representation at the annual meeting of stockholders of the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation company scheduled for 9 a. m. today at the office of the company at Orange. The meeting was adjourned because of no quorum and the old board of directors will continue to serve another year.

$270,000 ISSUE TO BE UP TO VOTERS EARLY IN MARCH

Special City Counsel Clyde Bishop today was preparing an ordinance calling for a bond election
here in March for an issue of $270,000 to provide funds for expansion of the water and fire departments, increasing street equipment and paying for a portion of the proposed repaving of West Fifth street, from Baker street to the city limits.

The issue will provide $150,000 for the water department. For the fire department, $75,000 is proposed. Of this amount $25,000 will be used in the installation of a new fire alarm system, possibly to include a police call system; $25,000
for additional fire fighting apparatus for two new stations proposed to be established, one each in the west and east parts of the city. It is estimated that each of the fire halls will cost $12,500.

It is proposed to issue $15,000 in bonds to provide the street department with equipment to increase its efficiency.

It is proposed to pay one-third of the cost of repaving West Fifth street and to pay all the cost of culverts to be substituted for the small city bridge near the P. E. crossing of Fifth street. It is estimated that the city's proportion of the cost will be $30,000.

Decision to call the special election was reached at an executive session of the city council last night. Charles H. Chapman, councilman, was authorized to confer with Bishop as to details and the date for the election.

The first reading of the document is expected to occur next Tuesday night. The instrument will be referred back to the special counsel and will be given its final reading and will be adopted

at a council session a week later.
The ordinance requires publication
for eight days.

Councilmen last night expressed the desire that the election be held March 1, if possible.

Discussion of petitions for the providing of more parks here disclosed that the councilmen were favorable to acquisition of more ground under a bond election. It was said, however, that they deemed the other projects pressing needs of the present and did not include the park program in the schedule because of the possibility of a large sum in the one election mitigating against the interest of the other proposed projects.

FAMILY'S DOMESTIC ROW IS AGAIN AIRED

The domestic affairs of the Meger family came in for judicial notice here again today, when G.
Meger entered suit against Emma Meger and Hulda Hemmerling for $2,000 damages for furniture which he alleged that they have retained without right and $1,000 additional for costs and exemplary damage.

Meger was recently defendant in a suit brought in an effort to restrain him from abandoning his daughter, said to be incompetent.
In that suit, it was said that he was expected to leave the state,
and a restraining order was requested.

In his suit, Meger said that the defendants had appropriated certain listed furniture and refused to surrender it.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES CONQUERED OR MONEY BACK

For 40 years, said Dr. Carey, I have been prescribing my Prescription No. 777 (known for years as Marshroot) for kidney and bladder sickness and now that I have retired from active practice I have made arrangements with leading druggists to dispense this wonderful prescription at a moderate price, on the money back, if dissatisfied plan.

Beware of kidney disease—thousands die of it every year who ought to be enjoying the blessings of life and health. Watch the symptoms. If you have specks floating before the eyes, puffy eyes, clammy feet or moist palms, backache or sideache, you ought to get a bottle of Dr. Carey's famous Prescription No. 777 right away.

NOTE—Dr. Daniel G. Carey was a practicing physician for many years and his great Prescription No. 777 aided thousands of sufferers from kidney and bladder troubles. Hereafter you can always get this effective prescription in both liquid and tablet form from all reliable pharmacies, the country over.

DATE FOR SHOW AT TUSTIN CHANGED

Because of the changing of the dates for the next entertainment, at the high school, from February 3 to February 8, Principal J. W. Means found that he would be unable to show the Tom Mix picture scheduled. Another picture entitled "Too Much Business" has been procured. It is a seven reel romantic comedy.

In connection with it will be shown a Buster Keaton comedy, a Laguna scenic picture, and several illustrated local slides.

The one-act play "The Fourteen" staged by the high school students under the direction of Mrs. Helen G. Willing will also be given. Miss Gertrude Cawthon will take the part of Mrs. Pringle, Louise Vance that of Elaine Pringle, and Verne Boynton, the butler. Music will be rendered by the school orchestra. Another show is to be given the fourth Friday in February at which time the Glee clubs, under the direction of Miss Madge Stevens, will furnish music.

The proceeds will go towards the purchase of new instruments for the orchestra. Several newcomers have entered the orchestra which now consists of about fifteen instruments. The school owns, at the present time, two trombones, one clarinet, one cello, and one cornet.

It is the plan of Mr. Means to introduce community singing at that entertainment.

Shows will be given regularly on the second and fourth Friday of every month.

FEBRUARY MEETING OF BUREAU IS HELD

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—The February meeting of the Tustin farm bureau was held Friday night at the high school building. The meeting was opened by Dixon Tubbs, the new president. Membership signs to be posted at the homes of the members were distributed.

Prof. E. J. Stirmann, University of Southern California Extension service, gave an illustrated lecture on septic tanks, telling how to install them and pointing out the many advantages over a cesspool.

The movie machines were used to show the slides. Several slides on labor saving devices on the farm were also shown.

"THE FOURTEEN" IS TO BE SEEN FRIDAY

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—Alice Gerstenberg is the author of the play, "The Fourteen," which is to be given by the high school students Friday night along with the moving picture program. The play is written by Gertrude Cawthon, that of a wealthy New York hostess who has prepared for fourteen guests for dinner.

Very unexpectedly, of course, a blizzard comes on that day and the guests telephone that for various reasons, they cannot attend.

Mrs. Pringle, the hostess, is most anxious to have her table full and at the last moment telephones to nearby friends to come to dinner. The climax is reached when she receives a very famous person in the place of one of her guests.

TUSTIN PEOPLE SEE SNOW ON MOUNTAINS

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—Several parties journeyed to the snow over Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ogden, Mrs. Lottie Nordstrom, Mrs. Elva Holford and daughter, Willie Holford, motored to Baldy Sunday.

Rev. McDougall, Miss Katherine May, William Kudk, David McDougall, Ruth Tantiing, Anna Louise Hurtado, Robert Kurk, Alice McDougall, Louise Grislet and Louise Artz spent Saturday at Camp Baldy.

Miss Stella Yoakum spent Saturday and Sunday at Mt. Lowe.

Lyle Forney, Raymond Fisher and Cecil Suddaby motored to Silverado canyon and climbed Saddleback until they reached a place where the snow was two feet deep.

HOLD UNION MEETING

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—A union meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of all grammar schools in the Tustin Union High school district, will be held at the high school building on Friday, Feb. 16.

It will be a general get-acquainted meeting. The Laguna grammar school eighth grade pupils, fourteen in number, will put on a program. Irvine, Trabuco, El Toro and Tustin school districts will also be represented.

VISITORS AT WIESE HOME TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonney, relatives of C. A. Wiese, spent Sunday at the Wiese home. In the afternoon the party motored to Laguna Beach. Mr. Wiese intends to visit a school in Long Beach this week. He was formerly principal of the school.

NEW PUPILS ENROLLED TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—Several new pupils have enrolled at the high school this week. Among them are Elton Martot and Auborne Huffman, of Santa Ana, and Miss Florin Riley from Laguna Beach. Graham Smith has left the Tustin high school and will enter Los Angeles polytechnic.

Our Family Wash Service gives women a Wash Day Smile—Santa Ana Laundry.

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—Student body and class elections were held last week at the Tustin high school.

Student body officers for the present semester are: James Means, president; Raymond Fisher, vice-president; Mary Dunstan, secretary; Theron Sauer, treasurer; Charles Crawford, athletic manager; Edna Phelps, historian; Florence Boosey, commissioner of forensics; Cotilda Hutardo and Angas Cawthon, song leaders; Wendell King, Gertrude Cawthon, auditing committee.

Class officers for the present semester are: Edna Phelps, president; Clarence Bowman, vice-president; Gertrude Cawthon, secretary; Charlena Swartz, treasurer; Clarence Trickey, yell leader; Nellie Ware, historian; Lyle Forney, newspaper reporter.

Officers of the junior class were elected as follows for the present term: Florence Boosey, president; Merrill Thompson, vice-president; Agnes Cawthon, secretary; Katherine Isch, treasurer; Lyle Kelly, yell leader.

Officers for the sophomore class were nominated but not elected. Nominations follow: For president, Theron Sauer; Bonafacio Jimenez, vice-president; Roy Kuykendall, Thelma Artz, secretary-treasurer; Norma Nordstrom, Ethel Osterman, Ida Thorman; yell leader, Bonafacio Jimenez; vice-president, Bonafacio Jimenez; Nelson Rust and Albert Morris.

Officers of the freshman class were elected as follows: Thomas Crawford, president; Helen Smith, vice-president; Elizabeth Palmer, secretary and newspaper reporter; Marjorie Edmunds, treasurer; Franklin Holbrook, yell leader.

SMALL BOY HONORED BY BIRTHDAY DINNER

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—A birthday dinner in honor of the sixth birthday anniversary of Edward Shoemaker, and a family reunion were held at the home of Mrs. C. Squires Sunday.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shoemaker and children, Edward Shoemaker, Marjorie Shoemaker and Charles Shoemaker, Mrs. Belle Shoemaker, Mrs. May and son, Harold May; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Squires and daughter, Mary Ellen Squires; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Squires, Mrs. C. Squires and daughter, Grace Squires and Charles Crawford.

Mrs. May and son, Harold, left Sunday afternoon to spend several days in Lankershim. Mrs. May has been visiting at the home of her brother, Earl Shoemaker.

PROSPECTS FOR BASKETBALL BRIGHTER

BY CHARLES CRAWFORD TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—With three games won and only one lost and the next game with Huntington Beach scheduled for the home court, the prospects for the boys' basketball team are much brighter.

Team Handicapped. The team has been handicapped all year by the lack of either a guard or forward and this vacancy will be filled now by James Means, who has been sick and unable to play so far this year. Means was a star forward last year and will add much to the scoring ability of the Tustin five.

Means will play in the game with Huntington Beach here Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. He reported for practice Monday night.

Decide Championship. This game will decide the championship of the second section of the Orange county high school basketball league. Huntington Beach is now in the lead with four games won and none lost. A win would give Tustin a tie. Tustin has won two games from Garden Grove and one from San Juan Capistrano.

The Capistrano game was played last Friday here and the players showed much improvement. Tustin won, 27 to 15, Miller, Tustin center, scoring 14 of the local's points. Lyle Kelly, guard, made several sensational shots from mid-court.

The 130 pound team played the Orange quintet Monday afternoon, losing to the visitors, 15 to 7.

Issue Baseball Suits. Seventeen boys have been issued baseball suits by Manager Charles Crawford and several others are waiting for new suits to arrive. Prospects seem good for baseball providing Tustin can develop a good pitcher. Fred Miller looks like a good twirler at the present time.

Miss Stella Yoakum has assumed charge of the girls' baseball team and the first practice was held Monday afternoon with more than two dozen girls answering the call for candidates. All the veterans of last year will be available for the team this year, it is understood, and several new girls appear talented at the game.

JUNIOR PLAY BEING REHEARSED AT SCHOOL

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—A comedy, "Hurry, Hurry, Hurry," will be given by the junior class in the near future. The cast has been chosen and rehearsals are now being held at the high school auditorium. A professional director will be secured, it is understood. The play will be followed by the senior play in a few weeks.

ALL DAY RALLY PLANNED BY ADVENTISTS

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—An all-day rally of the Advent Christian church is planned for Sunday, February 18. The program in the morning will be largely a Miller memorial service. William Miller is the reputed founder of Adventism. It is expected that Rev. Virgil F. Hunt will deliver an address in the afternoon. Rev. Hunt was pastor of the Tustin church almost forty years ago.

Rev. William Snider is also expecting Rev. and Mrs. French of La Verne, old friends of his, to deliver short addresses. In the evening a short exercise, given by the members of the church, will tell "The Story of Adventism."

This will be followed by a stereopticon lecture on the life of William Miller.

Tables will be provided and hot chocolate and coffee will be served by the women at noon.

Rev. Snider also announced a meeting of the official board of the church Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Shatto. Several improvements in the church will be considered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—An attack on the newspaper representatives in the press gallery of the senate was made by Senator Heflin of Alabama, Democrat, who was twice called to order by the senate, Friday, for remarks made on the floor.

Mr. Heflin declared no newspaper account of his activities "contained the whole truth."

A clear intimation was given by Mr. Heflin that "if this thing continues," he would make an effort to bar "representatives of the subsidized press" from the galleries.

WORK ON BUILDING IS TO BE RUSHED; CONTRACT AWARDED

TUSTIN, Feb. 6.—H. Newton Thornton, Feb. 6.—The additions to the primary school building, it was decided last night at a meeting of the school trustees. The work will be rushed and will be paid for with money authorized by the recent bond election here. The vote has been officially canvassed and certified to the county board of supervisors and the bonds will be issued, advertised and sold by the school trustees.

"GRAND LARCENY" ON YOST SCREEN TOMORROW

Albert Payson Terhune, author of "Grand Larceny," the photoplay to be shown at the Yost theater tomorrow, has written a powerful melodrama that will make men think less of themselves and more of the women they profess to love.

The story presents the heroine as a rose between two thorns. She happens to be married to one, but that doesn't stop the other from breaking the commandment against coveting one's neighbor's wife.

As may be surmised, the family is broken up. Then follows a series of events that lead to the surprising denouement. This much may be said without disclosing so much of the story as to spoil the observer's enjoyment of it. The girl finally learns that most men consider women as a form of property that may be decorated and shown off to the world. Her reaction to this brings about the defeat of both men's desires.

Claire Windsor, a slender blond beauty, plays the leading feminine role, while the nation's perfect "movie" husband, Elliott Dexter, gives an excellent interpretation of his part. Other well known actors in the cast, which was directed by Wallace Worsley, are Richard Tucker, Tom Gallery, Roy Atwell and John Cossar.

KOLB AND DILL WIN FAVOR IN "NOW AND THEN"

Kolb and Dill have swept into success in their latest offering "Now and Then," one of the cleverest comedies ever written for the elongated and rotund comedians. It will come to the Yost theater Thursday night. As a pair of saloon keepers who come to the parting of the ways after thirty years of partnership, one adopting prohibition and the other taking up bootlegging as a profession, they have found exceedingly congenial roles.

"SECRETS OF PARIS" DUE AT TEMPLE FRIDAY

In the photoplay, "The Secrets of Paris," which opens at the Temple theater here Friday, Lew Cody, one of the best known screen stars, will be seen in the role of the Prince. He is one of the most versatile actors in America, and every role he portrays the fan can depend upon Cody playing his role well. He does not overact, neither does he pose for effect.

In the role of the Prince, Cody feels that he has a part that has done him justice. Ever since a boy, he, like so many youths who had a strong love for adventure, loved the works of Eugene Sue.

The cast for the film contains many well known people, such as Montagu Love, Gladys Hulette, Rose Goghan, Effie Shannon, "Buster" Collier, Harry Sothern, Dolores Cassinelli, J. Barney Sherry, Walter James and others.

"THE HOTTENTOT" IS FILM OF HUNDRED LAUGHS

"All my life I've been afraid of horses," says the man who rides "The Hottentot," the current attraction at the West End theater. Harrington, played by Douglas MacLean, is afraid of horses and admits it until suddenly he finds himself forced to ride in a horse race or lose the girl he loves and his own self-respect.

It doesn't take him long to make his choice. He may be afraid of horses but he would rather be dead than brand himself a coward. So he wins in one of the most exciting steeplechases ever filmed. He wins both the race and the girl in the case. And he does it on sheer nerve.

Everyone thrills to deeds that dare, to cheery courage. And that's the character of Sam Harrington in "The Hottentot," the current attraction at the West End theater. Harrington, played by Douglas MacLean, is afraid of horses and admits it until suddenly he finds himself forced to ride in a horse race or lose the girl he loves and his own self-respect.

"The Hottentot" furnishes laughter and excitement from beginning to end. It starts with a race between a runaway horse and an auto and ends with a unique steeplechase. The action never flags. One comic situation develops into another even funnier as Sam flounders from deep water to bottomless depths.

"FORGET-ME-NOT" IS FILM AT PRINCESS

"It is more important to empty the orphanages of the country than the jails."

This is the belief of Bessie Love, the young screen actress whose role in "Forget-Me-Not" at the Princess theater, is that of Ann, an orphan girl. Having spent two weeks in an orphanage, and a well conducted one, in Los Angeles, before taking up the work of appearing as an orphan, Miss Love speaks with the authority of experience.

"I don't mean that children are treated unkindly in institutions. There undoubtedly are instances of harshness, but during the two weeks when I was an orphan, to all outward appearances, I found unfeeling consideration.

"But one thing that struck me was that there was, and could be, no lavishing of affection upon the children by an individual. And that, to me, seems depriving a child of one of the most important bulwarks of morality. The memory of mothers keeps more people straight than any other force in life.

Little Dinner

One of the recent gay affairs
among members of the younger social set was the attractive little dinner with which Mrs. A. B. Cope of 218 West Chestnut street, entertained for the birthday of her daughter, Miss Ruth Cope.

The valentine motif was evidenced in the table decorations,
where a merry kewpie doll smiled
from a nest of smilax in the center.
Red ribbons led to the four corners, where smaller kewpies were stationed while tall red candles in crystal holders and quantities of vivid hearts scattered over the snowy linen, added to the attractiveness of the appointments.

Guests found their places by means of red hearts from which ribbons led to the smilax in the center of the table where dainty favors were concealed.

Seated around the table, the young people, including Miss Cope,
Miss Anna Grace McElree, Miss Louise Campbell and Miss Marian Baird, Messrs. Newton, Richard,
George Slater, Fred Hobbs and Hale Winterrowd enjoyed a delicious dinner deftly served by Miss Cope with the assistance of Miss Gladys Cope and Miss Jean Morris.

Following the dinner the oc-
cette motored to the Yost theater,
where they had a box for the evening's performance.

"Stay Put"

The American Indian
Is Discussed at
D. A. R. Meeting

Despite a certain disappointment attendant upon the inability of their speaker to be present, members of the Daughters of the American Revolution, meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R.
E. Whitted, 1637 East Fourth street, held a most interesting session.

Several important items of business were transacted. Delegates were elected to the state conference to be held in San Francisco and to the thirty-second Continental Congress, which meets, as always, in Continental Hall, one of the most beautiful buildings in Washington, D. C.

Continental Hall was built by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. It has a fine auditorium in which many of the sessions of the recent disarmament conference were held.

Delegates and alternates elected for the state conference were Miss Mary Bess Henry, who is state chairman of the committee on education; Miss Mabel Whiting, Mrs.
Hudson and Mrs. Flora Pyle.

Mrs. Leonard G. Swales, an ex-
office delegate to both conventions,
plans to go to Washington in May,
accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mignon Swales, who is to act as page. Delegates and alternates for the Washington meeting are Mrs.
Ella Campau, Mrs. A. J. Crookshank, Mrs. E. G. Holmes, Mrs.
Grace Wright.

Mrs. Atwood, chairman of the National Board of Indian Welfare Work was to have given the address of the afternoon, but was unable to be present. Mrs. Atwood is still in Washington working for the interests of the Pueblo Indians
in whose behalf the Bursum Bill was recently defeated. The session did not, however, lack an Indian program. Mrs. H. M. Sam-mis, who as chairman of the music committee has provided so many talented musicians for this year's meetings, by special request, herself gave two vocal numbers, both Indian songs—"The Sinking Moon," by Cadman, and "Pale Moon," by Frederic Logan. Mrs.
Sammis was accompanied by Miss Ruth Anderson.

Mrs. Alice Hill Hatch kindly filled the breach left by Mrs. Atwood's failure to appear. Mrs.
Hatch lived for some time in Oklahoma where she came in contact with numerous Indian tribes. Conspicuous among these were the Cherokees and the Osages, and others of the so-called "civilized tribes." Mrs. Hatch called attention to the prosperity of these and many of the other Indian tribes with whom the government has dealt not only justly but generously.

She admits that the affairs of the Indians are frequently mismanaged
by officials appointed by the government to care for and represent them. But she thinks that upon the whole, the Indians are as fortunate in their officials as are the rest of us!

Miss Jennie Lasby spoke on the fourth Pan-American Conference about to convene. She commented on the fact that the South American and Central American countries are no longer friendly to the United States, thanks to our blundering and self-interested political policies.

Ladies' Aid SocietyFIRST METHODIST.

At an all-day meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist church to open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the church parlors, an important new section will be created. This will be made up of young married people alone and all members, especially newcomers to the congregation, are urged to be present and aid in making the innovation a success.

At noon a group of hostesses
will serve luncheon at a nominal
price and in the afternoon the regular program will be presented.

In the hostess group are Mrs.
P. A. Robinson, Mrs. O'Hare, Mrs.
McClary, Mrs. W. L. Miller, Mrs.
George Post, Mrs. D. M. Peters,
Mrs. J. G. Quick, Mrs. J. M.
Rough, Mrs. M. Ritchie and Mrs.
Belle Rogers.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.
Members of the South-East section of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will be entertained Friday afternoon, February 9, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. A. Bear, 1406 East
First street. All have been requested to come prepared to devote the afternoon to sewing.

W. C. T. U.

All members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union are anticipating the Frances Willard Memorial program to be presented at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, February 13, at the home of Mrs. Theo.
A. Winbiger, 207 East Ninth street. The program for the afternoon will be announced in the near future.

Ebell Travelers

Hospitality reigned yesterday at the beautiful home of Mrs. Victor Montgomery, 1418 North Main street, when Mrs. Montgomery, Mrs. J. E. Gowen and Mrs. A. L.
Dearing entertained members of the Second Travelers of Ebells at a 1 o'clock luncheon.

In the afternoon the subject
for study was "International Relationships With the Orient." Mrs.
C. F. Crose and Mrs. W. S. Dearing presented papers on the subject and aroused an interest
among their hearers which evidenced itself in a lively discussion.

The full membership of the section was present to enjoy the occasion.

Gay Birthday Dinner Gives Pleasure to Friendly Group

A happily planned birthday dinner was that with which Mrs. Al Hardin entertained Sunday in honor of Mr. Hardin, who on that day celebrated the attainment of another milestone.

Asked to enjoy noon dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Hardin and their young daughter, Florence, were Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Baker and daughter, Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gridley and son, John.

The table was vivid in red decorations with flowers and nautics harmonizing while the big birthday cake which completed the feast was aglow with red candles.

In the afternoon the party motored to Balboa, where they enjoyed a stroll on the beach, returning to the Hardin home on North Garnsey street for Sunday night supper and to spend the evening with music and merry chat.

WALL ST. JOURNAL FINANCIAL REVIEW

Market Extends Gain Made On Monday; Stocks Show Strength

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—After going into new high territory Monday in both industrial and rail averages, the market today consolidated and extended its gains. Stocks showed marked strength throughout and many issues reached new tops.

The copper, which has lagged behind the rest of the list, revived, buying being in evidence in American Smelters and federal mining and smelting preferred.

Automobile issues also were well purchased and many made new highs for the year.

More recent developments have been on the constructive side. New building is increasing, railroad earnings show better and steel demand is strong, with prices advancing.

ORANGE PRICES UP ON S. F. MARKETS

Advance of 25 Cents Per Box Is Made On All Sizes Offered

(By United Press Leased Wire)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The local orange market has made another advance of 25 cents per box on all sizes. A range of $2.75 to $4.50 is now being quoted on fancy oranges, with choice stock selling from $2.50 to $3.75 per box.

A few boxes of Florida avocados, which arrived yesterday, were offered at $6 to $10 per dozen.

The quality of bell peppers now being received is not very satisfactory. Medium grade bells are selling from 10 to 15 cents a pound. Chili peppers are bringing 15 to 17 cents per pound.

More chitery is being received at this time and dealers here are asking $2 to $2.25 per crate for it. The lettuce market is easier on continued heavy receipts. Best Imperial is selling generally at $2.50 per crate, although a few sales were made at a slightly higher figure.

TRADING MODERATE ON L. A. MARKETS

(By United Press Leased Wire)
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 6.—Trading today was moderate. Supplies in most cases were liberal and the market generally steady.

Peas were weaker under heavy receipts from several sections. Bunched vegetables were in heavier supply and showed some lots of ordinary quality. Lettuce, both local and Imperial, continues to sell slowly.

Apples and citrus fruits are steady, but have a better tone than in past weeks.

Asparagus, $1 per pound.
Artichokes, $1.75 to $2.
Bunched vegetables: Beets, carrots and turnips, 30 and 35; spinach, 20 and 25.

Eggplant, Imperial Valley, 13 to 22; Mexican, 12 to 14.
Grapefruit, Arizona, $4.25 to $4.75.
Lettuce, local, best, 75 to $1.00.
Lettuce, Imperial Valley, large, $2.25 to $2.35.

Onions, Stockton Brown, $2.50 to $3.00.
Oranges, northern navel, $3.75 to $4.50.
Peppers, local bell, 8 to 10; chilis, best, 15 and 20; Mexican not quoted.

Parsley, 15 to 20.
Peppers, Mexican chili, 20 to 22.
Potatoes, Idaho russets, 1.50 to 1.75; new stock Carlsbad best, 6 to 9c per pound.

Squash, Italian, $1.25.
Tomatoes, local few ropes, 1.25 to $1.50. Mexican pink, 2.15 to 2.25; ripe, 6 to 8c per pound.

While they have not been engaged this winter in active competition, it is a bet that Charley Paddock, "Brick" Muller, Jack Merchant, Bob Legendre, Frank Zuna, Sol Butler, Allen Woodring and Ray Watson, will be on the team.

GRAIN PRICES DROP ON CHICAGO BOARD

(By United Press Leased Wire)
CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Grain prices were lower at the close of the Chicago board of trade due to absolute lack of export trade and reports of snow over a great part of the winter wheat belt.

Provisions closed unchanged.
May wheat opened 1-8 at 119 3/4 and closed 1-4; July opened 1-4 at 113 3/4 and closed 3-8; September opened 1-4 at 110 3/4 and closed 1-4.

May corn opened 1-8 at 74 3/4 and closed 1-4; July opened 1-8 at 75 3/4 and closed 1-4; September opened 1-8 at 75 3/4 and closed 1-4.

May oats opened 1-8 at 45 5/8 and closed 1-8; July opened 1-4 at 43 3/4 and closed 1-2; September opened 1-8 at 42 3/4 and closed 3-8.

Just year ago, Firpo slipped into New York from the Argentine looking for a meal. He thought he could fight and he wanted some of the big money he heard was being passed out to fighters in this country. Firpo wasn't known then. He couldn't get matches and his money was low, so he had to train in a cellar. Finally he got on a card in Jersey with Sailor Maixted and he got $150 for knocking out the Sailor.

That helped him a little and he got a $1,000 match with Joe McCann. He knocked out McCann and he got a $3,000 match in Brooklyn against Jack Herman. He knocked out Herman and went home to South America with his earnings.

Now Firpo is coming back and he'll be talking in large thousands.

GOSSIP of the RING

Citrus Market

FARRELL LOOKS TO U. S. OLYMPIC TEAM

Only Handful of New Track Men Developed Here In Last Few Seasons

BY HENRY L. FARRELL

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—With the indoor season half over, it has become apparent that many of the tickets for the Olympic jaunt to Paris in 1924 have been clinched.

When the United States team went to Antwerp in 1920 there were only six athletes in the bunch who had had previous experience in the Olympic games. They were Dan Albrit, Pat McDonald, Ted Meredith, Fred Murray, Pat Ryan and Matt McGrath.

The long interval between the games on account of the war was responsible for a practically new team and perhaps it should not be considered unusual or a slap at the new generation that Uncle Sam's next team will be composed almost entirely of veterans.

In three years only a handful of new athletes have been developed. The most outstanding of the athletes who were not on the 1921 team but who no doubt will go to Paris are Alfred Leconey and Bob McAllister, sprinters; Leroy Brown, Dartmouth, high jumper; Allen Helfrich, middle distance runner; and Gourdin, world's champion broad jumper. In another year a flock of new stars may be developed, but it is not probable.

Form shown this winter makes it appear certain that the next team will have on it Jole Ray, champion middle distance runner; Jimmy Connolly and Jake Driscoll for the same distances; Loren Murchison, Bob McAllister and Jack Scholz, sprints; Leroy Brown, Dick Landon and Johnny Murphy, high jump; Willie Plant, walks; Earl Jabs, long distance events, and Pat McDonald and Matt McGrath, weights.

Despite the return of warm weather, something which his hopefuls need badly for the next week or two to get in some good clicks at training, Ray Adkinson, chief mogul of the Santa Ana high school track and field club, was far from being a happy young man today.

In fact, Adkinson is blue and the nearer the track meet between Manual Arts, high school and Poly, scheduled for Thursday afternoon, nears the local mentor gets more so.

The reason for most of Adkinson's worry lies in the scarcity of material with which to build up his track squad, which was badly shot by graduation last year and which appears on the verge of even more disasters by ineligibility.

Not more than twenty candidates are reporting to the Santa Ana leader every afternoon. Of that number a scant half dozen went through last season's campaign.

Dungan is Big Help
Adkinson's biggest asset at present appears to be Henry Dungan, the husky football star, who has been hurling the discus well beyond the 100 foot mark with regularity. In the inter-class meet Dungan tossed the Greek affair six times and only once failed to better 103 feet. He has approached 115 feet in practice several times. Dungan also is a fair pole vaulter and broad jumper and may be able to cop a few digits during the season in these events.

Anderson, a newcomer here, reported for duty last night. It was whispered around that he is good for better than 100 feet with the discus himself and a mean football and baseball player to boot.

Bob Vawter, who displayed great possibilities in the distances last season, has been running in great form this year and Adkinson relied on him to nab

He's a "card" at the most opportune time when the heavyweight class is coming into its greatest activity in years.

Firpo is signed to meet Bill Brennan in Madison Square Garden in March and he must be getting $25,000 as his end, if he is getting a cent.

A fortunate young man is Luis Firpo.

He knocked out Sailor Maixted, Joe McCann, Jack Herman, and then polished off poor Jim Tracey, the Australian, who was so poor in this country that he couldn't get a match. Now, after this great start, Firpo is being groomed for a crack at Dempsey.

Firpo is a "card." He's a new figure in a class where the faces are all old and too familiar. He's a giant and a cave man in looks and actions. He can hit like a locomotive and he can take a tremendous wallop. Perhaps he has the makings of a great fighter, but right now it is the circus appeal that is pushing him to the top.

HERE'S BRAN NEW THRILL FOR JADED

JOHNNY CARLTON DOING SOMERSAULTS ON SKIS

Here is Johnny Carlton in the middle of one of his spectacular somersaults on skis, which has electrified spectators at all the carnivals held in New England and New York state for the past four years.

Not content with being the premier ski performer of the east while he was a student at Dartmouth, Carlton is now traversing the hills of Switzerland on the long ski planks, and recently took second prize in a ski jumping contest in one of the big carnivals there. He was jumping against some of the most able performers of Europe.

Carlton graduated from Dartmouth College last June. A native of Hanover, he has spent most of his life out doors, in the summer with a tennis racket in his hand, in the winter, mounted on skis or snow shoes.

In college, Carlton was captain of the ski and tennis teams. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and a Rhodes scholar. At present he is studying at Oxford, in England.

The somersault on skis as done by Carlton, is accomplished by diving head first, when leaving the take-off. To complete his stunt in the picture, he will bring his skis down to the right—and his head up—to the left—and continue to slide down the side of the hill.

S. A. TRACK CHANCES FAR FROM GOOD AS CLASH WITH MANUAL ARTS ON SCHEDULE

Otto Gardner, who cavorted at end for "Spud" Morrison's football aggregation, has shown good form in clearing the low and high hurdles and looms as a sure point winner in these events.

Randolph Bell's mark of 5 feet 7 inches in the high jump on his first attempt at the event stamps him as a valuable addition to the squad and as soon as the basketball season is over Lorraine Bowe will begin work with the leaping stuff. He was with Adkinson last year and placed in the county meet.

Captain Roland Rabe appears to be Poly's best bet in the dashes.

Earl Jabs is being counted on heavily by Morrison to cop some honors and points in the weight events, particularly the shot put. He has already bettered 42 feet his season with the iron ball.

The Manual Arts meet will enable Adkinson to get a better line on his squad and what some of his men can do in actual competition. It will be the first out-of-door meet for the team as the clash with Huntington Beach was called off last Friday.

Anderson, a newcomer here, reported for duty last night. It was whispered around that he is good for better than 100 feet with the discus himself and a mean football and baseball player to boot.

Bob Vawter, who displayed great possibilities in the distances last season, has been running in great form this year and Adkinson relied on him to nab

A fortunate young man is Luis Firpo.

He knocked out Sailor Maixted, Joe McCann, Jack Herman, and then polished off poor Jim Tracey, the Australian, who was so poor in this country that he couldn't get a match. Now, after this great start, Firpo is being groomed for a crack at Dempsey.

Firpo is a "card." He's a new figure in a class where the faces are all old and too familiar. He's a giant and a cave man in looks and actions. He can hit like a locomotive and he can take a tremendous wallop. Perhaps he has the makings of a great fighter, but right now it is the circus appeal that is pushing him to the top.

POLY BASEBALL MEN BEGIN 1923 SEASON

Juniors, Sophomores Tie In First Fracas of Annual Inter-Class Series

The Santa Ana high school 1923 baseball season was officially under way today.

Approximately thirty men reported to Coach "Spud" Morrison yesterday afternoon when the Poly mentor summoned team candidates for the opening practice of the year.

Of the number that turned out few are letter men although about eight veterans will be with the club before the league begins February 23. Several letter men are now busy with basketball.

Morrison opened the season with the annual high school inter-class series. The juniors and the sophomores did their stuff last night and when the fray was called just before the electric lights began to twinkle in the houses near Poly field the teams were tied at 7 to 7.

LeBar on Mound
"Barney" LeBar, one of last year's regular hurlers, was on the slab for the third year men while Oscar Spencer, a southpaw, tossed them across for the sophomores. Both chuckers were under instructions to begin easy. In the first spasm with the two pitchers lobbing them over the rubber the Sophs slammed LeBar for four tallies and the Juniors nicked Spencer for six.

After the first frame the pitchers bore down a little but the Sophs got one around in the second inning and tied the score in the fourth with a couple of markers. The Juniors made one in their half of the third.

Townsend Gets Triple
The juniors had a great opportunity to win out in their part of the fourth and final round when with two down, "Capple" Townsend slammed one by Schuchart and made it good for three sacks before Beissel finally located the ball in the gloom. Bickford had a chance to be the big hero but Spencer managed to retire him on an easy fly.

The seniors will get a chance to mingle with the juniors tomorrow night and the final tilt in the inter-class series will bring the sophs and the seniors into combat next Monday. In between and after that Morrison will put his cohorts through their traces for some pre-season games.

The Santa Ana outfit will travel to Pomona February 21 for a session with the Orange Growers.

The lineup of the junior-sophomore fracas follows:

Juniors Sophomores
LeBar P. Spencer
Brown C. Wurster
Williamson B. Watts
Bickford B. Carmack
Townsend B. Middlebrook
Bell S. Schuchart
Kennedy L. Best, Beissel
Fesman C. Kirmsey
Armstrong R. Parks

Score By Innings
Sophomores 4 0 2-7
Juniors 6 0 1 0-7

BOY SCOUTS PLANNED BY SCOUTS

William P. Webb, new deputy commissioner for District No. 4, Orange County council, Boy Scouts of America, will make his first formal inspection Friday night, when Troop No. 2, Anaheim, holds its first investiture ceremony in the Knights of Columbus hall, Anaheim, it was announced today.

Webb's duty will be to visit regularly each troop in the Anaheim district and see that the standards of the Orange county council are maintained.

Twelve scouts will receive their "Tenderfoot" badges Friday night. Troop number 3 is the baby troop of Anaheim under the leadership of Paul P. Neja, scoutmaster.

District Court of Honor dates have been announced in the bulletin for districts Nos. 1 and 2, under the direction of R. R. Miller, chairman, to be held at Garden Grove Community building, at 7:45 p. m., Friday, February 23; District No. 3, under the direction of Leon O. Whittle, chairman, in the cabin of the Christian church, Orange, Friday, February 18; District No. 4, in the Junior high school, Anaheim, February 12, under the direction of C. C. Smith, chairman; District No. 5, in the new Scout auditorium, Brea, February 16.

Try to Set Record
These will be the first district courts to be held in the new year and it is expected that many awards will be made. The chairman of the various districts are endeavoring to surpass last year's record for some 1200 awards.

The Tustin troop held investiture ceremony last Friday evening, at which time four new scouts received their tenderfoot badges and Scoutmaster Dana Lamb appointed the new Pine Tree Patrol, which will begin operations immediately. This patrol was selected for special training along the system used by James A. Wilder, chief sea scout.

The Costa Mesa troop received from the Daughters of Veterans, at a special meeting last Friday evening, a beautiful wool American flag fully mounted. The flag was presented by Mrs. Gage, patriotic instructor for the Daughters of Veterans, Orange county.

The Daughters of Veterans have already presented three American flags to other troops in Orange county. Fullerton Nos. 1 and 2 and Huntington Beach No. 1 have received a flag through this organization. The next troop in Orange county scheduled to receive a flag from them is Yorba Linda. Troop No. 1, under the direction of W. E. Swaine, scoutmaster.

Aid Bed-ridden Girl
Garden Grove No. 1 had followed the example set by a Fullerton troop and has installed a wireless set in the hospital at Garden Grove for a little 12-year-old girl who has been confined to her bed for some time.

District No. 4 is to have two new troops during February, one at Cypress, under the direction of Scoutmaster Miller. The Rev. A. C. H. Bod of the Episcopal church of Anaheim, who has for several years been a scoutmaster at Long Beach, has announced that he is ready to organize a troop in his church in Anaheim. This will give district No. 4 six troops.

A bulletin from Scout headquarters to all scoutmasters of the county announced the monthly meeting of the scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters and troop committeemen to be held Monday evening, February 19 in the cabin of troop Nos. 3 and 10, Santa Ana. It is expected that from 50 to 75 men will attend this meeting, at which time many important problems relating to the development of scouting will be discussed.

The Tustin high school has invited scouts of Orange county to attend an entertainment to be held at the Tustin high school next Friday evening.

MAN HELD ON GIRL'S CHARGES IS RELEASED

William Baird, accused of a misdemeanor, on charges brought by a 17-year-old girl, was free today, following his acquittal by a jury in Justice J. B. Cox's court yesterday.

The jury required but a few moments for deliberation as evidence in Baird's retrial was presented.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Hearing in the divorce action brought by Geraldine Farrar against Lou Tellegen was postponed until tomorrow. Tellegen's attorney objected strenuously to an open hearing.

Phone 237 for good dairy products.

Reduce Those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunions to become normal, but also reduces gonorrhea, enlarged glands and tonsils.

Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil Treatment as directed and the improvement will be at once. Your druggist can supply you.—adv.

FAIR QUESTIONNAIRES ARE MAILED OUT HERE

Questionnaires today were being addressed to county fair associations throughout the state by R. D. Flaherty, secretary of the 1923 Orange county fair board.

"The questionnaires," Flaherty said, "cover all points relative to the successful conducting of a county fair. The replies should be of great value to those responsible for the Orange county exhibit."

Plans were being made, Flaherty said, to hold a banquet for prospective exhibitors at the county fair at the end of this month. The affair probably will be given at St. Ann's Inn, though the date has not been given, he said.

Progress was being made with the premium list and a report will be made at the next fair meeting, he said.

IRVINE 'BUBBLE' HOPES SHATTERED

With thirty days available to them in which to perfect their appeal to the secretary of the interior, 161 homestead entrymen who hoped to obtain a slice of the Irvine ranch today were considering whether to press their claims, following receipt in Los Angeles of a communication from the department of the interior, Washington, which completely rejected the entries and closed the case.

It was held that the land desired was not public land subject to entry, but within the Rancho Lomas de Santiago, a claim that was confirmed August 15, 1854, and patented to Theodocia Yorba February 1, 1868.

All intended entrymen are shut out by the ruling, it was said.

MAY CLOSE STORES HERE FEBRUARY 22

Whether Santa Ana stores shall observe Washington's birthday was discussed by the board of directors of the Merchants and Manufacturers' association today. The matter was turned over to P. S. Lucas, secretary, to ascertain the wishes of the merchants.

Consideration of the proposed revision of the city ordinance relative to obstructing sidewalks was passed to committee.

New members approved by the board were as follows:

W. P. Fuller and company, paint; O. H. Egge and company, auto tops; O. A. Haley, automobile agent; Garland Santa Ana company, auto agents; Jack Olivari, vulcanizing; Crown Stage company; Triangle Orange County express; Crawford Advertising agency; Madame Marie Louise, millinery; Orange County Welding and Radiator company; G and G. Metal shops; F. D. Hollingsworth Machine shop; Stein Photo shop; and Simon-Skidmore Manufacturing company, machine tools.

INTERVENTION SUIT FILED IN ROW OVER STREETS IN OIL LOTS

Asserting that streets were acquired in the "encyclopedia" lots in the usual manner, and with the consent of the owner, the county of Orange and Supervisor William Schumacher today filed complaint in intervention, in response to a quiet title suit recently entered against the county by Vallee O. Appel, who sought to retain title in certain valuable oil lots at Huntington Beach.

Appel was owner of lots, which at the time he acquired them, were comparatively valueless. Since oil was found there, they have increased many times in worth.

It was Appel's contention that certain streets, outlined by the county, did not belong to the county, but rather to him.

Today's complaint sought to have the plaintiff in the various action dismissed with nothing, and to have him compelled to pay the costs of the suit.

CRASH VICTIM'S KIN ASKS ESTATE LETTERS

Ernest A. Chaffee, a brother of the deceased, had today entered petition in superior court here for letters of administration in the estate of Mrs. Belle M. Chaffee, who was killed when her automobile plunged over an embankment in Brea canyon January 22.

The estate does not exceed $10,000 in value, it was stated. The following items were listed:

Home in Garden Grove, $3,000; securities, $3,000; automobile, $750; life insurance policy, $1,000; personal policy, $100.

TWO NEW FIRMS FILE INCORPORATE PAPERS

Two new Orange county firms were in existence today as articles of incorporation were filed with County Clerk J. M. Backs.

At Huntington Beach, Huston, Suter and Huston, Inc., will engage in an agency and brokerage. The capital stock is $100,000, although but $3,000 has been subscribed. The directors listed were:

J. E. Huston, E. A. Suter and D. W. Huston, all of Huntington Beach.

The Dungan and Callicote company, will conduct a dairy business in Anaheim, it was stated. Capital stock was set at $10,000, but $5,000 actually subscribed. The directors were J. T. Dungan, Vivan V. Callicote and Elsie F. Dungan, all of Anaheim.

TRIAL DEFERRED

In the trial of Tony Ederlich, charged with a serious offense involving an 8-year-old child, was continued one week by Superior Judge Z. B. West, before whom he appeared. The absence of a witness was given as the cause.

NEGRO HELD IN SLAYING WILL DODGE NOOSE

(By United Press Leased Wire)

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 6.—Chester Carleton, American negro held in Tia Juana for the shooting of a Mexican police officer, will not be executed, even if he should be found guilty, it was predicted today to the United Press by Senor Francisco Balderrama, chief of police at the border village.

Carleton's trial which was to have been held yesterday, was postponed account of a fiesta held at Tia Juana yesterday. It will probably be held tomorrow.

Balderrama, speaking through his secretary, who understands English, predicted that the alleged slayer of George Monteverde, who at the same time seriously wounded Porfirio Monteverde, a brother, will escape with a sentence not greater than ten years in prison.

While the interpreter was not very plain, he indicated that the Mexican courts would doubtless take into consideration that the Mexicans were shot down in a gun battle, and that the man who shot them was acting in a measure, at least, in self defense, after the fight started.

POMONA GLEE CLUB PROGRAM IS TOLD

The program to be given by the Pomona College Glee club at the United Presbyterian church here Monday night, under the auspices of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor, was announced today.

The program will open with the "Pilgrim Chorus" by Verdi, after which two ancient carols, "In Dulci Jubilo" (German of the fourteenth century) and "Lo How a Rose E'er Blooming" (fifteenth century) will be ensemble numbers.

Gardner's "From Canebrake" will be played as a violin solo by Truman Douglas, followed by the "Volga Boat Song" (Gaul) by the entire club.

The baritone solo, "Bedouin Love Song" sung by Douglas Hodson, and a tenor aria, Donizetti's "Angelo Casta e bel," sung by Paul Russell, will be separated by the "Hunter's Farewell."

Ensemble numbers will include "Roadways" by Denmore and a group of Pomona college songs, including "Come on Ye Faithful," "Ghost Dance" by Bissell; "Sage Hens Cackle" by Wilson and "Hail, Pomona, Hail," by Loucks.

Interspersed with these will be two solo numbers, "Cargoes," and "A Round-Up Lullaby," sung by Ralph H. Lyman and a group of obligato songs; "Her Rocco" (Combs) by Warner Bentley and club; "Has Sorrow Thy Young Days Shaded" (Irish Folk-Song) by John Mangold and club; "Negro Death Song" (Crosby) by Paul Russell and club, and "Banjo Song" by John McCrea and club.

To offer variety will be a reading, "Alma Mater" by O. F. Lewis, given by Russell Parker.

City and County Briefs

Election of officers will feature the meeting of the La Habra farm center Thursday night, it was learned today.

"The Story of Electricity," a film produced and exhibited by the Southern California Edison company, is to be shown at the meeting of the Cypress farm center tonight, according to announcement of Edwin F. Whedon, secretary manager of the Orange county farm bureau.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allen's, who for many years suffered the tortures of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allen's decision is made.

Professor L. B. Smith, assistant district leader of Santa Ana, today was on his way to Santa Ana to review activities of the Agricultural Extension service in Orange county with H. E. Wahlberg, Orange county farm advisor, and his assistant, W. M. Cory.

U. S. SHIP 50 DAYS OVERDUE ON VOYAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Anxiety for the safety of the American barkentine Katherine Machall, which left Sydney, Australia, for San Francisco October 17, was expressed here today. No word has been received from her since her departure from Sydney. She is about fifty days overdue. She carries a crew of sixty and is laden with coal.

EXPERT TELLS RESULT OF FERTILIZER TESTS

"After seven years of experiment, I have proven to my own satisfaction that nitrogen fertilizers are the greatest limiting factors in citrus production," Professor C. J. Booth, dean of the Chaffey Junior college, told members of the Fullerton center last night, it was learned from H. E. Wahlberg, farm advisor, today.

"No effects were found," continued the professor, "from the application of lime."

"Sulphate of ammonia and cotton seed meal experimental plots during the seven years of tests gave the best results, and form the cheapest nitrogen fertilizer."

LAUNDRY PROPERTY HERE TO BE SOLD

State of the holdings of the Broadway Improvement company, formerly the Santa Ana Steam Laundry company, was indicated when it was disclosed that at the annual meeting of the company at 10 a. m. today, the board of directors was authorized to receive sealed proposals for the company's property at the southwest corner of Fifth street and Broadway.

When the directors adjourned it was with the understanding that they would meet again at 10 a. m. March 13, in the directors' room of the First National bank.

Officers and directors were elected as follows:

A. C. Bowers, president; W. A. Huff, vice president; C. L. Pritchard, secretary; First National bank, treasurer; W. B. Williams, M. Nisson, D. F. Campbell, H. C. Moberly and Judge Z. B. West.

INDIAN KILLS SELF AS ROMANCE BROKEN

(By United Press Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Unrequited love for Mrs. Norma Pearl Moore Smith, 27, soda fountain cashier, caused Chief Gabriel Whitehorse Hatting, 39, Cherokee Indian, to shoot himself to death at her feet in Bloomingdale's department store here last night, police declared today.

Flourishing a revolver and crying "I love her, I love her!" Whitehorse who came here from Oklahoma and New Mexico, fired three shots starting a panic among the 300 women shoppers. Two bullets went wild and the third killed him instantly.

"I am Chief Whitehorse of the Cherokee Indian tribe of Oklahoma," read a scrawled note found on the Indian's body.

"Bury me with Buffalo Bill. I was a member of his gang. The girls in the store are kidding me. How wild can I get? I am as wild as any fighting wildcat."

Letters found in the clothes of the Indian, some of them signed "Miss Pearl Moore" and "Norma Smith" bore such salutations as "Dearest Rain in the Face," "Sitting Bull," "My Indian Prince" and "My Papa."

"I was only kidding him," Mrs. Smith told police.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every sufferer from this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allen's, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinges of rheumatic pain, we will gladly return your money without comment.

Allen's has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allen's, who for many years suffered the tortures of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allen's decision is made.

Members of the Orange County Welfare conference are scheduled to meet tomorrow evening at the Cat 'n Fiddle here for 6:30 o'clock dinner, it was learned today.

A Lecture on Christian Science

Entitled
Christian Science: The Religion of Right Resistance

By
John C. Lathrop, C. S. B.

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Josephine Kittie, Second Reader, introduced the speaker with the following remarks:

"During the past year thousands of thinking people have gathered as we have tonight to hear something of Christian Science from the lecture platform. The good these lectures have done may be seen in the many instances of physical healing that have followed in the hope they have inspired in the tired and desolate hearts, in the better understanding of God they have imparted."

Truly they have been feeding the multitudes. This large gathering tonight is indicative of the universal desire to know more about God. Our Master said, "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst after righteousness for they shall be filled."

Our revered leader, Mary Baker Eddy established a Christian Science board of lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ Scientist in Boston, Mass. It is my privilege to introduce to you tonight a member of this board of lectureship, Mr. John C. Lathrop, C. S. B., of Brookline, Mass., who will now address you.

General Foch of France said, "A battle won is a battle in which one will not own one's self beaten." Ruskin wrote, "When the heart sinks the boat sinks." Persistence in right will move mountains. Right control, resistance, and persistence will master all things. This pathway of life is the pathway of true common sense, and true common sense is the sense common to God and His man. It is the sense that will become more and more conscious of a harmonious and more in spiritual understanding; it is the sense that makes a man the master of himself and of all circumstances.

I ask you: Is it common sense to obey the beliefs of fear, superstition and ignorance, which result in disease, discord and death? Is it common sense to believe that the earth is flat or that the sun revolves around it just because the sense of sight so testifies? Would it be common sense to believe that the clock in your room is not ticking plainly because your ears do not always hear it? Or would it be common sense to say you are not wearing clothes because you do not always feel them? Is it common sense to walk by sight and not by faith as Paul admonished, or is it common sense to give up solving any big problem just because the material senses do not comprehend it? Then neither is it common sense to accept the material testimony about disease and pain just because the living material senses say there is life and sensation in matter. Can mindless matter feel pain, or is it thought that feels it? If it is not the thought, then why do doctors stupefy the thought with an opiate to lessen the pain?

The endeavor of the human mind to govern the body has indeed been pathetic. Beliefs, theories, and rules have been as multitudinous as the waves of the sea. A cure for disease which seems effective today is abandoned tomorrow. Quackery is a thing universal, and no imposition is too great for the credulity of man. So the whole gamut of human faith in matter is run and run and strained to the breaking, until finally in its extremity, like the sinking Peter, human faith turns to the spiritual, to Christ, Truth, and cries, "Lord, save us."

The question of healing disease or sin is, as Mrs. Eddy sums it up, the question of the correct government of the body. It is the great question of control or right resistance. Shall the material body control man, or shall man govern and control the body and all its beliefs? This is the question of man control matter, or shall man and mindless matter control man? You see a snake in a dream; but when you wake up and see only a table, the snake ceases to alarm you. It is just so with the beliefs about matter and the material body. We should wake to see the real man, and we should awake now.

Christian Science is becoming universally accepted, and is doing its great healing and redemptive work because of its correct teachings about God and man. Christian Science awakens the thought to understand a God who is ever present, practical and provable, and to a man who is obedient to God's laws and government. It is the perfect likeness of God, and man are shown to be not corporal, limited and erring, but are proved to be what Christ Jesus showed them to be, spiritual, eternal, loving, vital, active, and to be so here and now. God is Spirit. All-in-all, the one Father-Mother Mind, the one and only creator or parent of man, who is God's spiritual idea, the perfect likeness of God, and man are shown to be not corporal, limited and erring, but are proved to be what Christ Jesus showed them to be, spiritual, eternal, loving, vital, active, and to be so here and now. Combined Poly Glee Clubs
To Stage "Bulbul;" 60
Pupils Are Cast

Can you sing and scowl at the same time?

Try it.
A little warbling will remove a lot of wrinkles.

In the world-wide quest for happiness there is no better mode of transportation than a song.

This is the logic which is at the bottom of plans being made at the high school here for music during the coming semester.

"A singing army is a victorious
army. No less is a singing school
a victorious school," said Principal D. K. Hammond, who impresses on students the value of their community singing.

It has been the custom at the high school this year to open every regular Friday morning assembly period with ten minutes of community singing.

School officials have expressed the belief that this plan has tended to increase the general interest in the affairs of the music department.

Form Two Girls' Clubs.

Two girls' glee clubs, each with nearly thirty members, and a boys'
glee club with twenty-five members, an orchestra with twenty-five instruments, and a band that is so large it has to hold class on the auditorium stage as the only adequate space, from the nuclei of the departmental organization.

"I am delighted with the work
the students are doing in the department and believe that our music standards are steadily climbing," Miss Margaret Wickes, head of the music department, declared in commenting on the plans for her department during the next few months.

These plans call for the staging of the operetta "Bulbul," by the combined high school glee clubs.
Rehearsals for this operetta have begun. More than sixty persons will take part in the performance,
which will be held late in March.
The operetta is described as a fascinating fairy tale and the music
and settings are said to be especially well adapted to high school work.

Boys Plan Minstrel.

High school boys are working on a minstrel show which they will put on early in March. The feature of the show is expected to be an act entitled, "Grand Opera Up To Date," which was originally written for the Columbia University Glee club.

Junior college music also is receiving special attention from the students and school executives.
Two excellent college glee clubs
are the girls' club, with a membership of eighteen and the mixed chorus of twenty-five students.

The combined college clubs are planning to put on a special entertainment in the high school assembly early in March for the purpose of raising funds for the college annual, "The Algon."

Late in April the college clubs

WOMAN CONFESSES THEFT SO HUSBAND MAY GAIN DIVORCE

MRS. EVE BERNARD

By Roy Gibbons
CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Love or the law?

Which is more powerful?
The law of love holds love
covers all sin.

The law of man punishes all offenders against it.
For love, Mrs. Eve Bernard here purposefully turned thief to provide her husband with statutory grounds to divorce her so he could marry and be happy with
"the other woman," according to testimony introduced in court
here in one of Chicago's strangest
love and legal tangles.

A blouse court wearied with the routine of justice was openly startled when Mrs. Bernard walked in and voluntarily confessed
the theft of a $60 dress from a downtown department store without having attempted to make an easy escape.

Would Be Felon
"I'm guilty, judge," she declared simply. "I took the most expensive dress I could find to make the theft a felony. That gives you the right to send me to the penitentiary."

"There were cheaper ones around. But I wouldn't take them because they would have been only a misdemeanor."

"I don't want a trial. Give me the limit. I love my husband sufficiently to die for him. With me out of the way he can easily get a divorce on the grounds of my imprisonment in a penal institution. The lawyer told us so. I—Then she faints."

Judge Schulman who has the case in hand admits he's gravely perplexed.

The woman is a confessed thief.
For that, the law inexorably
charges him to administer justice
—of the man-made variety.

But, on the other hand, the law
of love has already acquitted the 19-year-old bride.

"This woman has loved much,
indeed," the court said. "It is to be disputed whether the alleged crime already had not been expiated before a higher tribunal"

OPEN ORIENTAL ART CLASS TO PUBLIC HERE

Are you one of those persons—
Who is longing to study art—
Who wants to learn art appreciation?

Would you like to study Oriental art with a real art teacher, who is a student of a celebrated Oriental artist?

Then listen.
At the Santa Ana high school every day in the week, every week
until June 8, Miss Evelina Nunn, who is known to Santa Ana as a talented artist and who has traveled in the Orient and studied art
there, will give a course in Japanese brush work.

Class work began this week. The classes open at 1:35 p. m. and continue one hour.

Regardless of training or ability
any person in Santa Ana who desires to take this course, either for the purpose of learning to handle
the brush or only to learn to appreciate Oriental art, is invited to enroll in the course with Miss Donaldson, head of the high school art department.

There will be no fees and the only expense connected with the course will be the small cost of materials.

While traveling in the Orient
Miss Nunn was especially favored in having the opportunity of studying with Jippo Araki, the celebrated Japanese artist, who is also director of the Imperial Exhibit which is given semi-annually. This artist enjoys distinction both at home and in the Western world.

Miss Nunn plans to give her course here as it was given by the famous Japanese and aims to give those who enroll in the course all that she can of enjoyment and appreciation.

70-MILE SPEED CASE MAN TO FACE COURT

Speculation Rife Here As To Attitude of Cox On 'Record' Gait

Maybe R. Regia, said to be one of the speediest men that Orange county motorcycle officers have ever "clocked," was shivering with fear today.

If he wasn't, he was probably a man of unusual fortitude, for Motorcycle Officer O. K. Carr said that he caught him travelling at a 70-mile-an-hour gait through a trap on the Irvine boulevard about a week ago.

And Regia is scheduled to appear before Justice J. B. Cox tomorrow.

Now Cox has been known to send a man to the county jail
for a ten day sojourn when he got caught at a mere 51 miles an hour. He has never had the opportunity to deal with a really fast speeder like officers say this one was, but much speculation has been rife as to the punishment, he will mete out should Regia be found guilty.

Regia was riding a motorcycle
—and Carr says he was riding it like lightning. When the officer took after him, he failed to stop, continuing the chase for four or five miles before he was overtaken, Carr said.

This fact is not expected to be conducive to leniency on the part of the speed nemesis.

COMMERCE CHAMBER AT COSTA MESA TO ADVERTISE SECTION

COSTA MESA, Feb. 6.—A well attended meeting of the Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce was held Monday evening at the home of J. H. Rochester. About 65
were present. Fifteen new members were added to charter membership, making a total of 120.
President C. G. Huston made a few remarks of welcome and appreciation urging co-operation.

Hookstra Reports
Secretary Hookstra, who is cashier of the new bank, made a splendid report. He predicted a real future for Costa Mesa and Newport Harbor, bringing out the fact that we had not only Orange county back of us but Riverside and San Bernardino counties as well, with their wonderful productivity and wealth.

Dr. Wherry, who is our spokesman and delegate to the Associated Chamber of Commerce meetings, gave an interesting talk.

Other reports were made by D.
J. Dodge, chairman of the public utilities committee, regarding better roads and better service of telephone, stage and the installation of gas in the near future.

W. C. Spencer, chairman of the development committee, reported that he had a new map of the district being made, also a folder giving full data on the district and harbor. $120.00 was voted to pay for the folder.

Urges Harbor Development
Captain Forbes, who has had much experience along the lines
of shipping and harbor conditions,
made a strong plea for a greater and deeper harbor, pointing out the wonderful advantages of Newport harbor, in being free from silt and in having such a wonderful rich country to draw from.

He urged that import and export cargoes should be handled through this port as soon as possible,
even in a small way at first in order to get government interest and appropriations.

C. W. TeWinkle reported on membership and N. O. Mellott on finance.

W. W. Middleton asked the members to attend the farm bureau meeting Friday evening, as Mr.
Taylor of Taylor's Cannery, is going to speak on the subject of berry raising. Mr. Taylor believes that he could handle all the berries we could raise, if proper facilities and conditions were met with by the growers.

BEDTIME STORIES POPULAR ON RADIO

The bedtime stories, told for KFAW by Eleanor Young Elliott, will be a popular feature of the regular Monday and Thursday night radio programs, judging by reports coming to The Register office. Another feature that is interesting, especially to distant listeners, is the weather report. While the people of the East and Middle West are struggling with blizzards and zero temperatures, a message from the balmy Southland brings them the story of sunshine and flowers.

Letters and cards from persons in the East indicate that The Register's broadcasting station is directing much favorable attention toward Santa Ana. Among those reporting on KFAW today are Richard J. Loomis of Jargo, N.
D., and E. W. Prince of Beaumont, Tex. There are other messages today from listeners in Southern California, commenting on the station.

STATE LEADER OF LEGION TO BE GREETED

County Executives of Vet Organization Prepare to Hail Millington

Orange county leaders of the American Legion today were preparing to greet Seth Millington,
California commander of the World War veterans' organization, tomorrow, when the commander is scheduled to arrive here to deliver an urgent message to all Legionnaires.

Millington has been touring the state in the interest of the October National convention of the American Legion in San Francisco.
"California must lead all other states in membership," he has told posts during his tour.

Set Goal of 60,000.
"We have set a goal of 60,000,
and it must be attained during the months between now and October."

Maurice Enderle of Santa Ana,
first vice-commander of the California department of the American Legion, has planned to meet Millington upon his arrival here tomorrow.

Executives of Orange county posts of the Legion have made reservations for luncheon with Millington at St. Ann's Inn tomorrow noon.

Following the luncheon, Enderle expects to accompany Millington
to his next stop at Riverside.

Must Double Enrollment.

In order to have a 60,000 membership by October, the California department of the Legion must virtually double its present enrollment, Millington has said. This statement he is expected to reiterate at tomorrow's luncheon meeting.

"Out of this great war, now
written on the pages of history,
there was bound to come into existence an organization of ex-service men, for sentimental reasons alone, to perpetuate memories and incidents of the great conflict," said the State Commander in his message.

"The American Legion best represents that ideal organization."

GRAY-HAIRED MOTHER ASKS POLICE AID TO FIND LOST DAUGHTER

A little gray-haired mother has appealed to Orange county authorities today to assist in finding her 17-year-old daughter, who disappeared from her home late Sunday.

Mrs. G. H. Powell, Los Angeles, interviewed Sheriff San Jernigan
and police here, in an effort to obtain some trace of Margaret Powell, who left home under mysterious circumstances.

"She and a girl friend, Margaret Martin, were at our home," the mother said. "The Martin girl had to leave, and Margaret was to accompany her to the trolley. That was the last I saw of her. I am afraid that harm has come to her."

The Powell girl is in school, and her associates consider her pretty.
Her mother said. The woman is grief-stricken.

EDUCATIONAL BILLS WILL BE TAKEN UP

FULLERTON, Feb. 6.—Discussion of approximately 150 educational bills which have been introduced since the convening of the state legislature will feature the meeting of county educators and advisors at the Hotel California here February 19, according to an announcement today by L. E. Plummer, supervising principal of the Fullerton high school and junior college. It is expected that nearly a hundred principals, vice principals and supervisors of county schools will attend. A representative will also be selected to act on the Southern Council of Education. A definite program has not been set down, Mr. Plummer declared.

MOVING PICTURES POPULAR.

LA HABRA, Feb. 6.—The Friday evening moving pictures, sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood class of the Community church, in the social hall are becoming more popular as the weeks go by. Last Friday evening 225 people were present to see Charles Ray in the "Clodhopper." The attendance has increased every week since the first picture was put on. The Intermediate League put on a social after the picture. Over 25 of the boys and girls remained and spent the evening in playing games.

PREPARE WELCOME FOR RETURNED MEN

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 5.—Preparations for the celebration which will welcome back to the United States the Eighth United States Infantry—last of the "American watch on the Rhine"—were being rushed here today. The troops are scheduled to arrive Wednesday, on board the army transport, St.
Mihel. The German wives of sixty-six soldiers also are on the transport.

KISS TEST PROVES EMOTIONS OF MAN SURPASS WOMAN'S

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wilson kissing for an official. The chart below shows Mrs. Wilson's even, calm reaction (at top) and Wilson's jagged, fluctuating reaction record (at bottom).

MAN'S ABILITY TO SEE BOOZE CASE CRUX

Were W. C. Leland's eyes dimmed by the effects of strong drink, when his car crashed into another near Garden Grove several months ago?

The question will be answered
by a jury here when Leland comes to trial tomorrow before Superior Judge R. Y. Williams on charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Leland was arrested by Under Sheriff Ed French, who was called to Garden Grove following an automobile crash there several weeks ago. At that time witnesses said that Leland was drunk, and that he had guided his vehicle to the wrong side of the highway, thereby causing a crash.

Similar testimony was introduced at Leland's preliminary examination before Justice J. B.
Cox. The defendant's attorney,
however, gave a hint as to the defense when he questioned all witnesses closely as to their knowledge concerning Leland's position in the front seat when the collision occurred.

It was expected that the defense would attempt to show that the defendant was not driving at the time of the accident, and that the man who was driving had not been drinking.

There were two others in the rear seat of the Leland machine
when the crash took place, testimony at the preliminary hearing showed. They, witnesses said, had been drinking.

The Leland machine overturned
after hitting the other, it was said. Leland and his companions were dragged out from beneath the body by passersby who stopped to render assistance.

Rehearsal of Orange County Choral Union at 7:30 Wednesday evening at Junior High School.

By Gene Cohn

BERKELEY, Cal. Feb. 6.—The time-worn theory, women are more emotional than men, is being tucked away in moth balls.

For the "truth machine," that invincible recorder of the slightest human emotion or reaction,
is recording the contrary in a series of tests now being made by Professor John A. Larson, University of California criminologist
and inventor of the machine.

Larson is a member of the famous "Vollmer super-cops" of Berkeley and recently was offered a "scientific sleuthship" by Chicago police.

Male Emotion "Agitated"
In preliminary experiments this almost uncanny device has shown the male "emotion wave length"
to be considerably more "agitated"
and "fluctuating" than that of the female.

Incidentally, there has been secured for the first time, a close-up photograph of a kiss! It is in the gentle art of kissing that the first "emotion tests" have been made.

During the past two years the duties of the "truth machine"
were confined to the trapping of criminals in lies by their pulse beats, heart throbs, blood pressure and other reactions recorded by the sensitive invention.

Broadens Experiments Recently Larson broadened the scope of his experiments to the entire field of human emotions.

For the "kiss emotion" test the first subjects were O. W. Wilson, criminology student, and his new bride.

The "truth machine" is harnessed to a subject at the wrist, heart and arm. Thus the pulse beats, heart throbs and blood pressure
are recorded.

Through extremely sensitive apparatus internal emotions are instantly recorded on a revolving drum.

1000 LIONS TO COME HERE IN MAY FOR BIG CONVENTION GATHERING

Committees of Local Club
Rush Plans to Receive Guests from West

OUTLINE MANY STUNTS

Barbecue at County Park, Banquets, Grand Ball
Already Scheduled

J'ever hear of a lion which could sing, dance, play a banjo and recite the Declaration of Independence?

Have you ever seen, in or out of captivity, hundreds of these gentle creatures, wearing strange rail-ment and padding softly through the streets of a modern city?

Ever see 'em following in the wake of a band? Ever hear 'em line up at the feed trough and demand: "Food! Food! Food!"
No? Well, it has been done, all right—and it's going to be done again. Yes, right here in Santa Ana!

"From May 24 to May 26," says
John A. Henderson Jr., who knows all that is worth knowing about Lions, "a leonine roar will reverberate across the velvets of Western Landon. That's when the annual convention of the Lions' club
of California district will be held,
and unless all surface indications fall there will be a lot for the lion
tamers and the tail twisters to do."

Reception Men Busy.
"But," says Tail Twister Lee-craft, "what's a few hundred Lions, more or less? Handle 'em? I'll say we'll handle 'em! In great shape, too! It is expected there will be between 1,000 and 1,200 of them, and it will keep the reception committees busy."

The reception committees, however, headed by J. A. George, chairman of the Lions convention committee, will be "up and stirring,"
according to those who are following the tentative plans for entertaining the big gathering.
The plans, as at present outlined,
include:

A smashing big barbecue party,
organized at Orange county park, with W. K. Duffy, famed chef, in charge of the "eats."

A "stunt night," replete with thrills, to be staged "somewhere in Santa Ana."

A raid upon the great and popular "rinks" at Los Bunch—

Schedule "Side Trips"

A grand ball! side trips to points of interest, banquets, luncheons, addresses by famous Lions, and fun galore for all and sundry.

Ray L. Riley, district governor, will be in charge of the entire program.

"This means," said Secretary
Henderson of the Santa Ana club,
"that the job will be handled in a masterly manner. Lions from all sections of the Southland will be here to help us put on a regular party."

With the other clubs of the state
contributing to the worthy cause,
it was expected that at least $12-000 will be raised to defray the expense of the conclave in May.

PRESBYTERIANS PLAN TO HAIL MODERATOR

Presbyterians of Orange county were today preparing to extend a hearty reception to the highest officer of their church in the United States, Dr. Calvin C. Hays, moderator, who will be honored tomorrow night at the First Presbyterian church here.

A banquet is to be held in the dining room of the church at 6:30 o'clock. Two hundred persons are expected to attend. In order to give approximately 400 other persons, who are expected to come from all parts of the county, an opportunity to hear the moderator's message, a meeting will be held in the church auditorium at about 8 o'clock according to announcement made by the Rev. William E. Roberts, pastor.

To Honor Moderator.

The banquet is to be given in honor of the moderator and his party, which consists, beside himself, of the Rev. William S. Holt, D. D., associate secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, Philadelphia; and Mrs. D. E. Wald, member of the Woman's Board of Home Missions, New York. The meeting is one of six arranged during the Rev. Dr. Hays's visit to the Southland. The affair here will be the last of six, others having been held at San Bernardino, San Diego and several at Los Angeles.

E. E. Newman, bass, will lead community singing at the banquet. Miss Ruth Armstrong, who recently succeeded Harry Garatang as director of the church choir, will have charge of the musical program.

It is planned that each delegation from the various Presbyterian churches in the county give brief responses. Several of them, it was said, may give little stunts in connection with the presentation of mottoes or slogans.

To Deliver Addresses.

At least one of the moderator's party will deliver a brief address at the banquet. It is expected that all three will speak in the auditorium.

The Rev. Mr. Roberts and Judge W. H. Thomas will preside.

The series of receptions have been arranged through the Southern California Presbyterian Social union.

The Rev. Dr. Hays, who will bring a message from the general synod of the church to the Presbyterians of this region, is a resident of Johnstown, Pa., where he is pastor of the First Presbyterian church, a post which he has held for many years.

DECLARES STANDARD OIL IN PRICE PLOT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Charges that the Standard Oil company of New York had secretly shaded its market price for some gasoline retailers were made before the senate committee investigating prices by H. K. Heiss, New York salesman of automobile equipment.

Heiss produced bills to show that some retailers were permitted to pay up to 2 1/2 cents less per gallon for gasoline than was demanded on the bills of the company.

He is said he learned of this situation and applied to a salesman of the Standard company, demanding that he also be permitted to obtain a cheaper price. This was done, he charged.

TOO MUCH LAUGHTER

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Edmond Barnes laughed so loudly and so long at a funny film at the Broadway theater, Yonkers, that the audience had him arrested for disturbing them and the judge fined him $10.

than this. "Viewed in this light it is hardly fitting that I should review a case appealed from such a pure source. To send her to prison would be a crime."

Summons for Mate

Then he issued summons to have the errant husband, of but a few months brought before him. The wife in the case will be enjoined from further interference, he promised.

And Mrs. Bernard, held temporarily, will be judged according to her own code it seems.

The wife's plight has moved the husband nearly to conciliation.

She is to be given the right to plead with love as her sole counsel before the bar.

In such an instance—What would you have done? Had you been the wife?

The judge?

Do you think that love is more powerful than the law and that it offers sufficient penalty in itself for a crime committed in its behalf?

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected.

Judging from reports of druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish to first test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

Does Your Money Ever Come Back?

A lot of the money that is spent gets so far away that it never comes back. So far as possible it is best to keep it close to home. If we send it clear out of the country we KNOW it will never get back.

We are thinking particularly about the money spent for groceries, because that's our business. We have built up two big stores in Santa Ana, because the home people patronized us. All the profit we make—every bit of it—is spent right here at home. It is spent for the improvement of our homes, for the support of our churches and schools and for taxes.

We have our own warehouses here. We pay taxes on them here. These taxes help you build and maintain the streets that pass your place, and the country roads.

This year we are paying taxes in Orange County on a large scale. This money will save YOU from paying a lot of tax money.

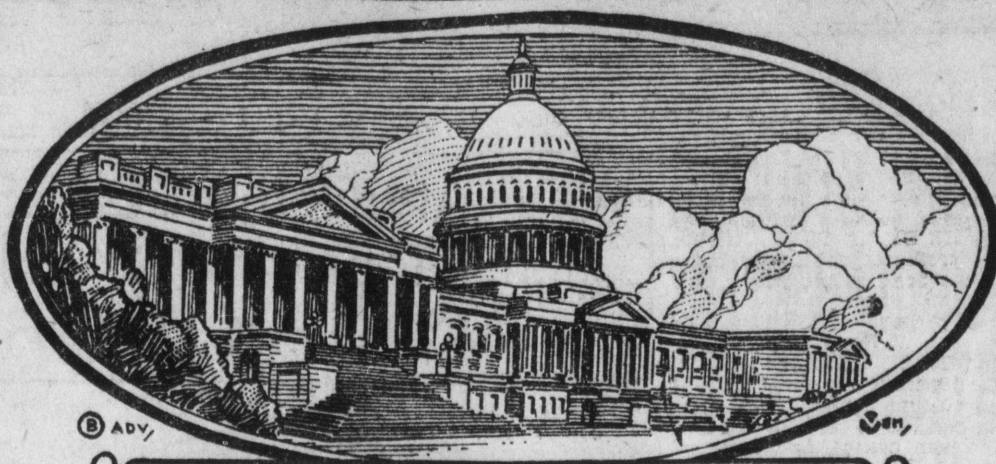

If the people hadn't patronized us we wouldn't be paying so much taxes and distributing so much money here at home.

When we spend our money we always consider: "Where do the profits go? Will we ever have a chance to get the money back?"

We believe this is a sound business principle.

We believe that every possible dollar should be spent with the idea of keeping the profits at home, especially when you are getting a dollar's worth for every dollar you spend.

What do you think about it?

The primary purpose of the Federal Discount Corporation is to discount the first class paper of furniture and household appliance dealers.

A Great Basic Industry Supports this Security

THE furniture industry can be named as one of the BIG businesses of this country. Millions of dollars are expended annually by the American people for furniture. The largest proportion of these purchases are made upon the deferred payment plan. Furniture dealers cannot carry all of this paper. Therefore they must look to a discount corporation.

By discounting the furniture dealers' paper an unusually attractive field is offered. It was for this purpose, primarily, that the Federal Discount Corporation of California was founded. Already this organization is actively engaged in the work. The substantial profits that an investment in the shares of this company carry has resulted in repurchases of many original shareholders. We unhesitatingly urge that you make an investigation into the present offering of shares without delay.

For those wishing to know the many features of this investment we will gladly send our booklet, "The Discount Business."

A PUZZLE A DAY

In an "open shop," 18 men were employed. Half of them belonged to the union. It was necessary to lay off half the force. The foreman, who belonged to the union, lined the men in a circle, as shown in the diagram, and began counting around the circle from A. Every time he counted to five, the man was discharged, and told to leave the circle. How did he arrange the circle so that every fifth man was a non-union man?

Yesterday's answer:

If a trunk weighs 10 pounds and half its own weight, its weight must be 20 pounds, 10 pounds being half its weight. Therefore, a trunk and a half will weigh 30 pounds.

EVENING SALUTATION

Be thou the rainbow to the storms of life;
The evening beam that smiles the clouds away
And tints tomorrow with prophetic day.—Byron.

RIVERSIDE "SYMPATHETIC"

The Riverside Press declares that Riverside is "sympathetic" with Orange county in the demand that the coast highway from the county line at Seal Beach to San Juan Capistrano be completed in accordance with the promises that were made at the time the state highway bonds were voted.

"This county," says the Riverside paper editorially, "is large represented among the property owners of the Orange county beach resorts, and naturally our people would like to see the road paved from Seal Beach to Capistrano. We should support our neighbor in that demand; and we hope to have the hearty backing of Orange county in our stand for the early expenditure of the $300,000 voted for the Mecca to Blythe road. Important as the coast highway is, the Mecca to Blythe road is even more important because it forms part of the most popular and most feasible auto road in to California from the east. And all Southern California is, therefore, interested in the improvement of this highway."

Riverside is entirely right in expecting that the state should fulfill the pledges made in relation to the Mecca to Blythe road, and in saying that all Southern California is interested in the improvement of that highway.

FEDERAL MARRIAGE LAW

Public opinion seems to be rallying to the support of Senator Capper's proposal for a uniform marriage and divorce law.

It is pointed out that 49 widely differing sets of laws now complicate the situation in the United States. This leads to inevitable confusion, frequent abuse and often unmerited suffering and humiliation. If these laws can be standardized so that what holds good in one state is equally lawful in another, it will work for the general good, especially as the move for uniformity includes the framing of adequate restrictions governing divorce and remarriage.

Very likely the inevitable battle champions of federal regulation and advocates of state sovereignty will be waged over the bill. None the less it presents the simplest way suggested thus far for securing uniformity where uniformity is a crying need.

MEDIATION NEXT?

One of the well-informed writers on European affairs sees mediation by a third nation as the next step in straightening out the Franco-German crisis. Just how soon it will be sought is still an open question, but the time is probably not far distant.

A member of the cabinet at Washington has said that he believes the net effect of the invasion of the Ruhr will be to convince the French that they cannot collect what they want after, and to convince the Germans that they must cease evasion of obligations and make an honest statement of what they can pay and their honest intention of paying it. "Then a settlement will be possible."

It seems the only way out, short of actual warfare, as far as now appears, and neither France nor Germany want warfare. So the next thing on the program will be the business of seeking a mutually agreeable mediatory power, careful scrutiny of suggested concessions and mutual efforts to back down gradually and in a dignified manner.

It is all tiresome and ridiculous and expensive and unnecessary; but if Germany and France really learn what each needs to learn in the process, something will have been gained for all the world.

THE HERRIN ACQUITTAL

The recent Herrin trial has resulted in the acquittal of the five men on the immediate charge. Three of the same men will face another trial soon, with another group held on a separate charge in connection with the Herrin mine uprising. The acquittal of the five occasioned little surprise in any quarter. It is impossible to predict whether convictions will be forthcoming in succeeding trials. The situation gives the sober-minded citizen food for thought.

The great obstacle in punishing mob crimes is in fixing responsibility. The very character of the scene and the high excitement made identification and proof of guilt very difficult.

The fact remains that in Herrin, as wherever such occurrences arise, some one was guilty and should be punished. If justice cannot be accomplished speedily, it should be carried on with that slow, relentless determination which has solved many an apparently insoluble crime. If society cannot bring such outrages to an end, it is not civilized.

BIBLE RELAY RACE

At a church in Philadelphia the other day, the New Testament was read through, from the first chapter of Matthew to the end of Revelation. The feat was accomplished in seventeen and one-half hours, and seventy persons participated, reading in fifteen-minute relays.

It seems uncertain whether this should be regarded as a religious event or a sporting event.

The thing is said to have been done to stimulate interest in Bible study. It may have a certain advertising value in that direction, because of its spectacular nature. But certainly in the performance itself there could have been nothing saving of "Bible study." It can hardly be characterized as anything but a Bible relay race, a test of physical endurance rather than a contribution to spiritual understanding.

LABOR IN WALL STREET

Financial history is made by the election of Warren G. Stone to a directorship in the Empire Trust Company of New York. Labor history is made, too.

Mr. Stone is president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and head of the co-operative bank established by that organization three years ago. It is as a representative of labor and of labor finance that he assumed the New York connection. The Locomotive Engineer's Bank has prospered wonderfully, by stimulating thrift and following a safe and sane policy, and has bought a substantial interest in the metropolitan bank in order to get a foothold in the country's financial center.

Thus organized labor may be said to enter Wall Street, on equal terms with organized capital. Mr. Stone will sit at the same table with Charles M.

Schwab and T. Coleman du Pont, in directing financial policies of mutual concern.

This is unquestionably a good way for labor to command the respect of capital. But there is nothing belligerent in it—no violence, no demagoguery. It is a simple, quiet, sane process by which workmen save and deposit their money and use it collectively, as capitalists do. Thereby they themselves become capitalists.

That, in turn, should promote better understanding and better relations between the two groups. The rapidity with which other labor organizations are following the railroad men's example is one of the most promising signs of the industrial world today.

Very likely it did cost Columbus only $7,250 to discover America, as the historians say. And we haven't a doubt in the world that any banker could prove, after a few minutes' figuring, that the compound interest on that sum from 1492 to 1923 would buy the whole western hemisphere and leave the principal to finance an expedition to Mars.

Strengthen Criminal Law

Long Beach Press. The Legislature will be asked to strengthen criminal law in this state and to make certain changes in legal procedure which should facilitate the prompt administering of justice and the exemplary punishment of criminals. The Los Angeles Crime Commission and the Los Angeles County Bar Association, collaborating, will present a program of remedial legislation which it is hoped to put through at this session.

That criminal-court procedure should be rectified in several lamentably defective features long has been conceded. The Legislature is to be asked, among other things, to submit two constitutional amendments to the people. One of these will provide that three-fourths of a jury may return a verdict in criminal cases except where such verdict involves the death penalty. The other proposed constitutional amendment would give judges the right to comment on the evidence and to advise juries on questions of fact, as well as of law, as is done in federal courts in this country, and in courts in England. These two proposed amendments should obviate the miscarriages of justice in so many criminal cases where juries disagree.

Another defect—indiscriminate granting of probation to offenders—would be remedied by a proposed bill amending the penal code to provide that probation shall not be open to persons convicted of crimes of violence involving the use of deadly weapons, nor to public officials found guilty of bribery, embezzlement or extortion.

Tide to South America

Redlands Facts. Emigration from Europe that has been checked by the immigration restrictions of the United States, is finding an outlet to South America. All of the countries there present big opportunities for the energetic immigrant, and reports show that the rate of influx is growing every month, assisted by the activities of European shipping concerns. It is probable that the movement will bring about a rapid stimulation of South American industry and an earlier development of the natural resources of that continent.

The outlook should cause no apprehension in the United States; on the contrary, the enlarged markets for American goods that are bound to be a encouragement to American manufacturers. It is up to them to be constantly on the job and see to it that the United States supplies the needed machinery and other material for South American growth. Suitable credit arrangements must be made to accord with the peculiar requirements of those countries, packing for shipment must be thorough, dependable ocean transport routes must be maintained, and in general, a special duty must be made of how to win and keep South American trade in competition with the countries of the Old World. American initiative and energy are equal to the task.

Mountains Inspiring

Pasadena Star-News. There is a glory in California scenery at present that is beyond words to describe. Long ranges of snow mountains glistening with a deep mantle of snow in the sunlight, and inefably beautiful by pale moonlight. These are scenes for poets and painters. They thrill the heart of all who have love for Nature in her forms of beauty and majesty. Hundreds of miles of white-robed ranges stretch up and down the state.

In the valleys and on the uplands there is the living green of shrubbery and orchards and grain fields, embellished here and there with the gold of oranges. Here is wrought once again that miracle of frequent recurrence in California—mountains covered with snow and valleys carpeted with green and crisscrossed with flowers. The Arctic regions and the tropics meeting within a few miles of each other. Polar snows and equatorial vegetation all within a few square miles.

These striking contrasts in Nature are among the many and varied attractions which California offers its own people and its thousands of entranced visitors.

By and by, as the warmth of spring comes on, following the copious rains, the valleys and mesas and mountain sides will be resplendent in new, fresh verdure—truly a sight for the gods!

The Obsolete Horse

San Francisco Chronicle. The people of that part of San Francisco in the vicinity of Thirty-sixth avenue and Cabrillo street are protesting to the Board of Health against permitting an assembly of good old horses, which have faithfully served an ungrateful mankind through all these years, to remain longer in the humble abode which they have occupied so long during their restful hours. That is worse than we treat the Russian refugees, who have never done anything to help us. While we may not allow them to land on our shores, if they once get in we do let them stay. The horse, they say, is "unsanitary." And yet mankind has always lived in contiguity with the horse, with no harm resulting, but much good service. It is not, that we know of, alleged that the horse is changed. Is it possible that the human race has so degenerated that it can no longer endure with safety associations hitherto harmless? Shall poor old Dobbin, who has served us so long, be turned out into the cold, unfeeling world? One of the most astonishing reasons given for the banishment of the horses is that the people desire motor cars instead of horses, that the neighboring children may be safer in the streets! Well, well!

Restoration of the poll tax is proposed in the legislature and it is to be hoped that an amendment to that effect will be submitted to the voters of the state. With proper education it ought to be carried. The abolition of the tax was a mistake as it resulted in securing at least a small contribution in taxes from many thousands who pay no other tax. With over a million voters in the state a poll tax of $2 should bring in $2,000,000 annually; and that would help much in solving the financial problems of the state.—Riverside Press.

Refusing the Hurdle

One California

Fresno Republican

There have been "Californians" of every variety and every hue and of every stage in life. There have been Californians of the long ago and of the present. There have been Californians who come and stayed with us. There have been Californians at first, who went away and never came back. There have been a few Californians on the wing, birds of passage, splendid passage, soon forgotten as Californians though their place in the world has remained.

Of this last group, among the greatest was Robert Louis Stevenson. We usually think of him as a Scotchman or as a derelict of health in the South Seas, singing, with the last flickerings of bodily strength, a swan song of the soul. But Stevenson was for a time a Californian.

In that period, among the verse that he wrote, was the following. Surely it breathes of the greatness of a California life—not just the unwavering sun of summer, or the barrenness of the early plains or the vastness of the mountains, or the verdure of the shore sweeps—all of California in its changing permanency. Here is his "I Know Not How It Is With You":

"I know not how it is with you—
I love the first and last,
The whole field of the present view,
The whole flow of the past.

"One title of the things that are,
Nor should you change nor I—
One pebble in our path—one star
In all our heaven of sky.

"Our lives, and every day and hour,
One sympathy appear;
One road, one garden—every flower
And every bramble dear."

Worth While Verse

LITTLE HOUSE UPON THE HILL

Little house upon the hill,
With your welcome light,
How my pulses quicken
As your rays I sight!

With a friendly welcome
You call to me each eve,
Driving from my memory
Things that pain and grieve;

Blotting out the worries
That sore beset the day,
Erasing all the stings and aches
That fell upon my way;

Telling, ever telling
In tones that never tire;
"Here's a place to sit and rest,
Here's a friendly fire!"

Little house upon the hill!
Holding all I prize,
Pray God through the years to come
Your light may meet my eyes.

DOUBLE ACTING.

A druggist had advertised an infallible protection against influenza. A nervous man entered the drug store and bought a bottle of the concoction. Two days later he returned, complaining that he had drunk it all and felt no better.
"Drunk it all!" shouted the druggist. "My dear sir, that was a solution to rub on the soles of your shoes to keep the water out."

Little Benny's

Note Book

Last Sunday me and Puds Simkins was taking a walk, being a pritty long of a walk, and all of a sudden who did we see wawking around looking lost but Sid Hunts fox terrier Teddy, me saying, G wizz, wats you think of that, how did he get all the ways out heer, G wizz he's lost.

Lets take him back and get the reward, half for me and half for you, Puds sed.

G wizz all rite, heer Teddy, I sed. Teddy not coming on account of genrally never ansering enybody but Sid and usually not even him, and Puds sed, We'll haff to catch him, you chase him tords me and ill stop him.

Wich we started to do, being hard on account of Teddy being so much easier to chase than wat he was to stop. Puds falling down twice trying to stop him and me falling down once and binking into a tree ofce, and we both got so tired we sat down on somebody's frunt steps for a rest and wat did Teddy do but wawk rite up to us waggung the last half of his body, and I grabbed a hold of him and picked him up and me and Puds started to wawk home with him, Teddy wiggling more like a fish than a dog and me and Puds taking turns carrying him about every half of a block, saying, G, I wouldnt want to haff to carry dogs for a living.

I wouldent even want to haff to do it for plezure, Puds sed. Wich jest then we herd somebody yelling in back of us and who was it but Sid Hunt running after us, saying, Hay, hay, wats you doing, ware you going?

Aint he lost? Puds sed and Sid sed, Certenly he aint, he was jest waiting outside wile I was in my ants house, Cant a guy go in his ants house? he sed.

Aw heck, me and Puds sed. And me and him and Sid wawked the rest of the way home and Teddy wawked part of the way and ran part as usual.

The Three-Fourths Verdict

Sacramento Bee

Senator E. J. Gates of South laws demanded by an overwhelming Pasadena has introduced in the ing sentiment of the citizenry legislature a constitutional amendment more than once have been declared null and void in the United States Supreme court by a vote of five to four, even when to the average citizen the dissenting opinion has seemed both right in principle and just in application.

Millions of little children are today toiling in the factories of the nation under conditions which stunt body, mind and soul because public opinion permits a bare majority of the supreme court to thwart its will.

This being the case, it is difficult to see where reasonable objection can be raised to Senator Gates' amendment. It has the support of some of the best informed jurists of the state.

Just a few days ago, Judge Bledsoe said in this connection:

I may suggest that my support of this change is not that convictions may be easier had but that verdicts of some sort may be secured. Under the present practice requiring unanimity, the mistrials and the delays and the injustices result, both to the defendant and to The People, are matters to be taken into consideration. The situation is one calling for justice, not convictions. If a defendant is innocent, his acquittal ought to be had in the quickest possible time. If he be guilty and it is so proved, his conviction should follow with equal celerity and his punishment be caused to begin.

It is to be remembered in this connection that the most serious questions of law and of constitutional interpretation are decided in the supreme court of both the state and nation by a bare majority.

Humanitarian measures and

This is a sane statement of the situation. The legislature would do well in giving its approval to Senator Gates' amendment.

REPLIES TO L. M. BALLARD

Editor Register: In defense of the city manager plan, I would like to check up on Mr. Ballard in his recent letter in your paper.

To begin with, I would advise Mr. Ballard to better inform himself upon the duties of a city manager, as he seems to have a very wild conception of those duties.

The difference in choice between mayor and city manager amounts to this: Which is the letter, a trained and capable business man, competent to handle business of a magnitude such as a city of this size has, or just any man who the people at large favor as a good fellow and possibly a good orator and last and least a good (?) politician. I would like to ask Mr. Ballard who manages our big business firms here, if it isn't generally a hired manager?

Mr. Ballard, what bearing do you think a city manager would have on our city government? Mind you, we are hiring a manager, not a governor; he will not govern; to manage will be his duty, and this, under the supervision of the so-called "city dads."

Mr. Ballard, how much do you have to say about who serves us in public offices under the old plan, that you can't duplicate under the proposed plan? Do you feel that you are as competent to step into an election booth and elect as good a man for the offices to be filled, as a good business man, type.

Adventures of the Twins

Buskin's Valentine

By Olive Roberts Barton

The next fairy to come to the hickory tree postoffice for his mail was Buskins, the apple tree fairy.

He ran the elevator up to the sky and knew everybody up there, so, of course, he always got a great many letters.

Sure enough, there was an enormous stock for him and most of them were valentines.

The first one he opened was from a kite in Kite land. Buskins read it to Nancy and Nick and Mr. Stamps, the postman:

"I like to fly up in the sky and hope to see you bye and bye, I'm tied tight to a piece of twine, But yet I'll be your valentine."

The next was from a balloon in Balloon Land:

"I'm light as air and very hollow, But where you go I'll always follow. I love you last, I love you first, With love for you I'll surely burst."

Buskins laughed. "I hope not," he said. "That would be dreadful!"

The next valentine the apple tree fairy opened was from a soap bubble in Soap Bubble Land:

"Nice little fairy man, Try and catch me if you can, When I sail up to the sky, I'll blow a kiss as I pass by."

"That's a pretty one, too," said Buskins. "My, oh, my! I never knew I had so many friends."

It was from the dandelion fairy up in "Thistledown Land. It went:

"I am fleecy and white, Though my flower was yellow, I fly to the sky With my little umbrella. Now Buskins, won't you Be my valentine? Do!

If you're caught in the rain, I have quite room for two."

"That's very kind, little friend," said the apple tree fairy. "Sometime I may accept your kind invitation."
